Though there are no popularity contests for administrators, one who would probably receive a vast number of votes if UMR had one would be "Dean" Louise Tucker. When a student becomes a second semester junior it's time to see the "Seniors Friend". Mrs. Tucker, as Assistant to the Registrar, helps to see that all course requirements for graduation are met by UMR students. Her help and guidance has always been quite helpful and she consistently welcomes those who "want to see if they are going to graduate".

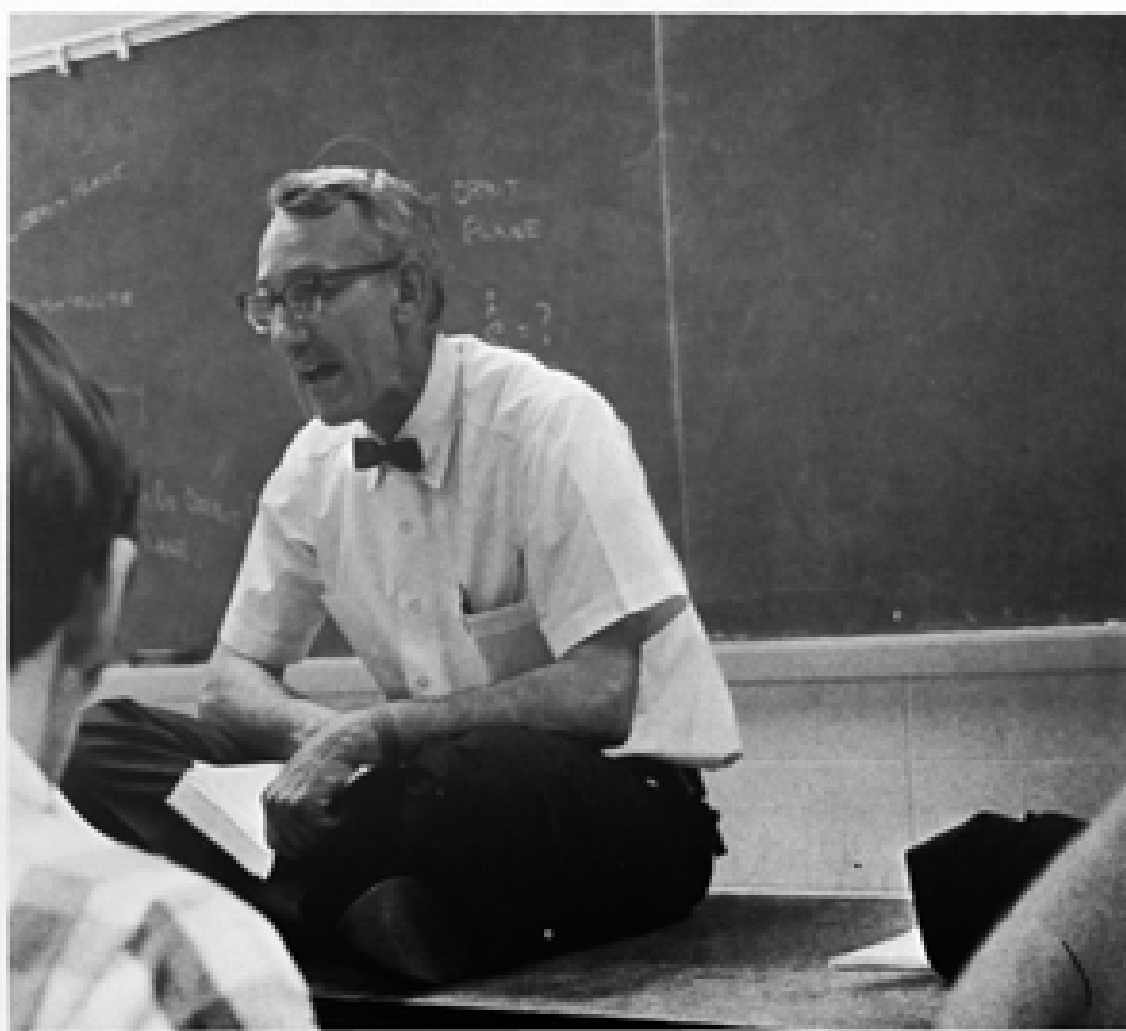

As Director of the Student Union, Mr. Bill Kratzer has truly become the "Students Friend". Through his daily actions he is responsible for the activities, maintenance, and programs of the Student Union. He is also responsible for the undertakings of the Student Union Board in its programming throughout the year and has been quite active in the realization of the new University Center. One of his greatest achievements was made this past year when he purchased "Frisbees" for use by the students.

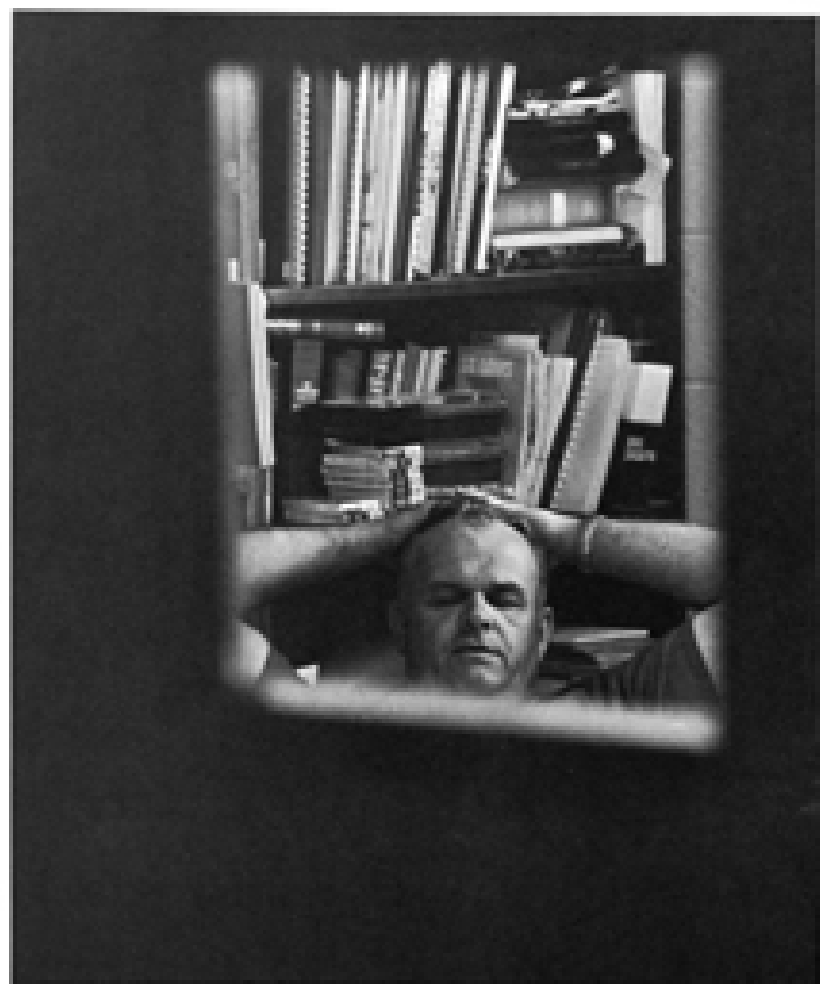

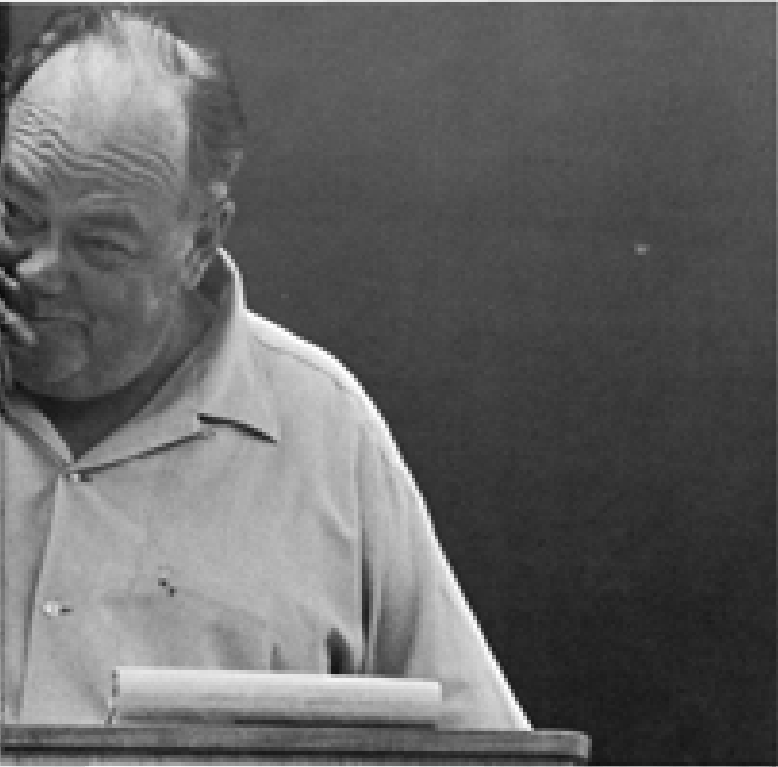

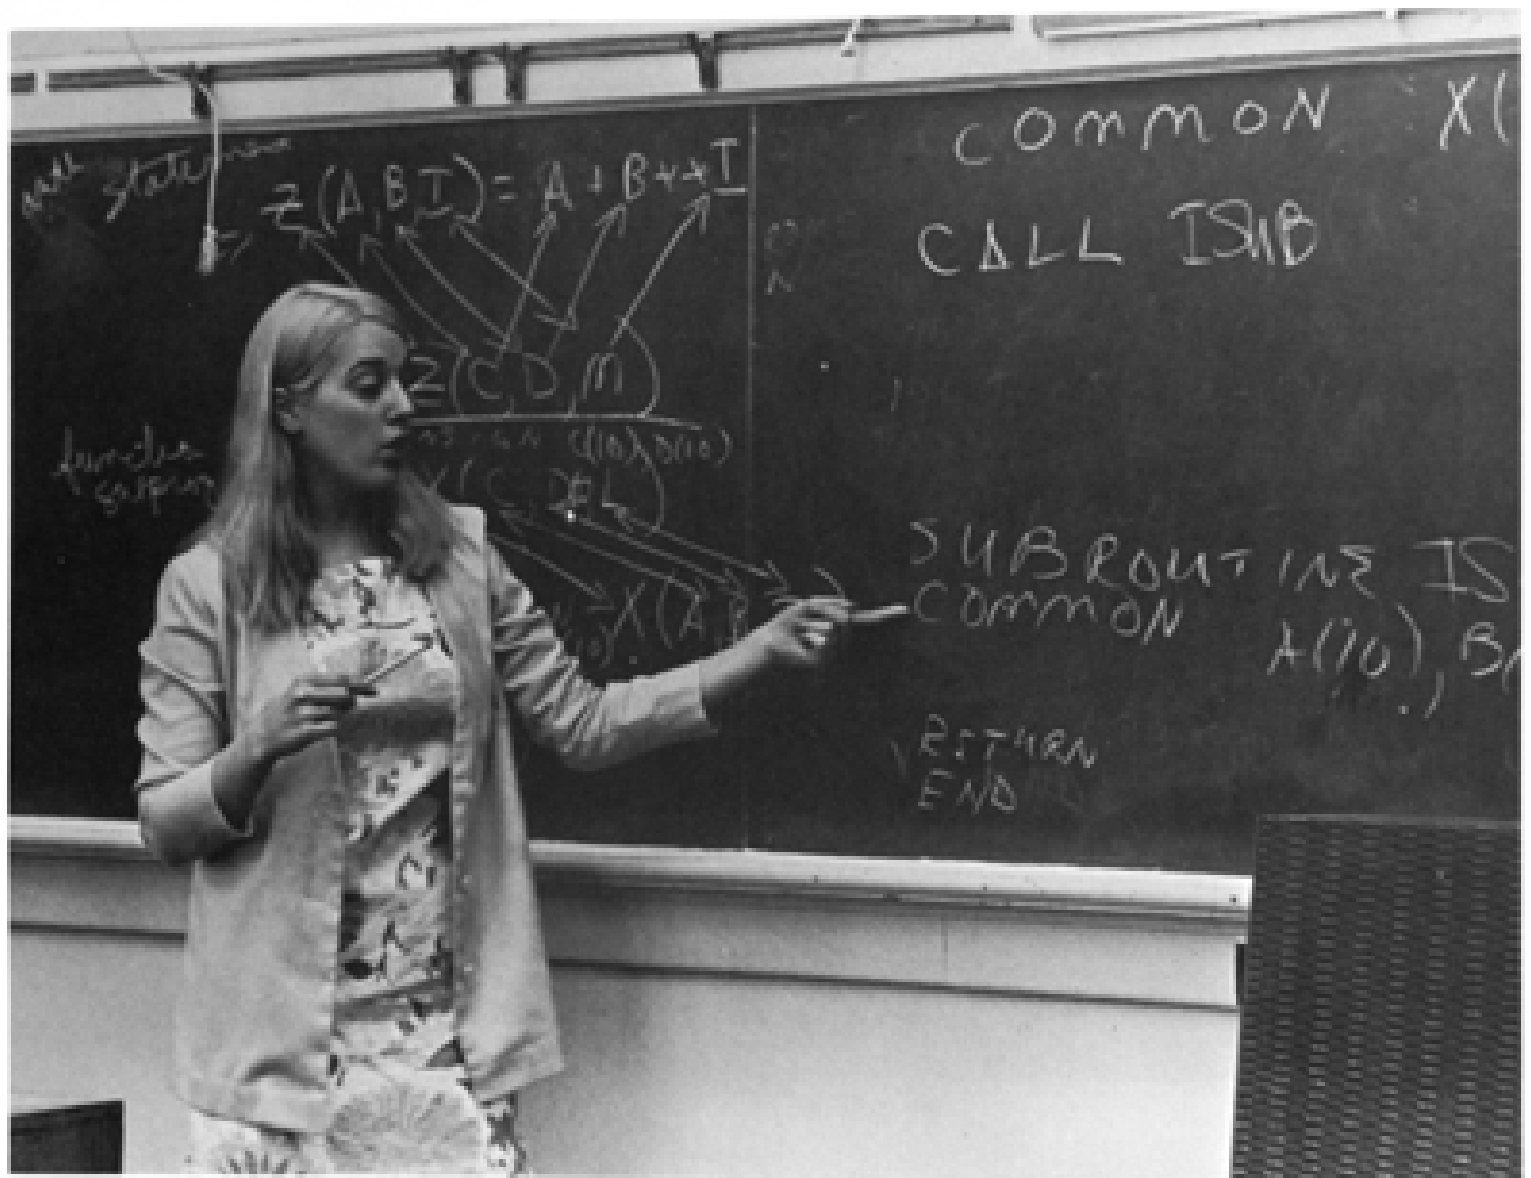

Academics

We seek to find ourselves ...

But our essence
can only be found alone.

(4 years) (36 weeks/year) (17 hours/week) behind

Knowledge ... for the good of all mankind, or as a stepping stone to its destruction.

In the preceding pages of faculty, administration, and academic programs, I have tried to show things as relevantly as I saw them this past year. Headlines and copy were intentionally deleted because I felt the pictures tell the story and descriptions often become repetitious. As a student for the past five years, I have watched the university change somewhat. I hope more changes are in store for the future.

Indian Game Dominates All School Outing

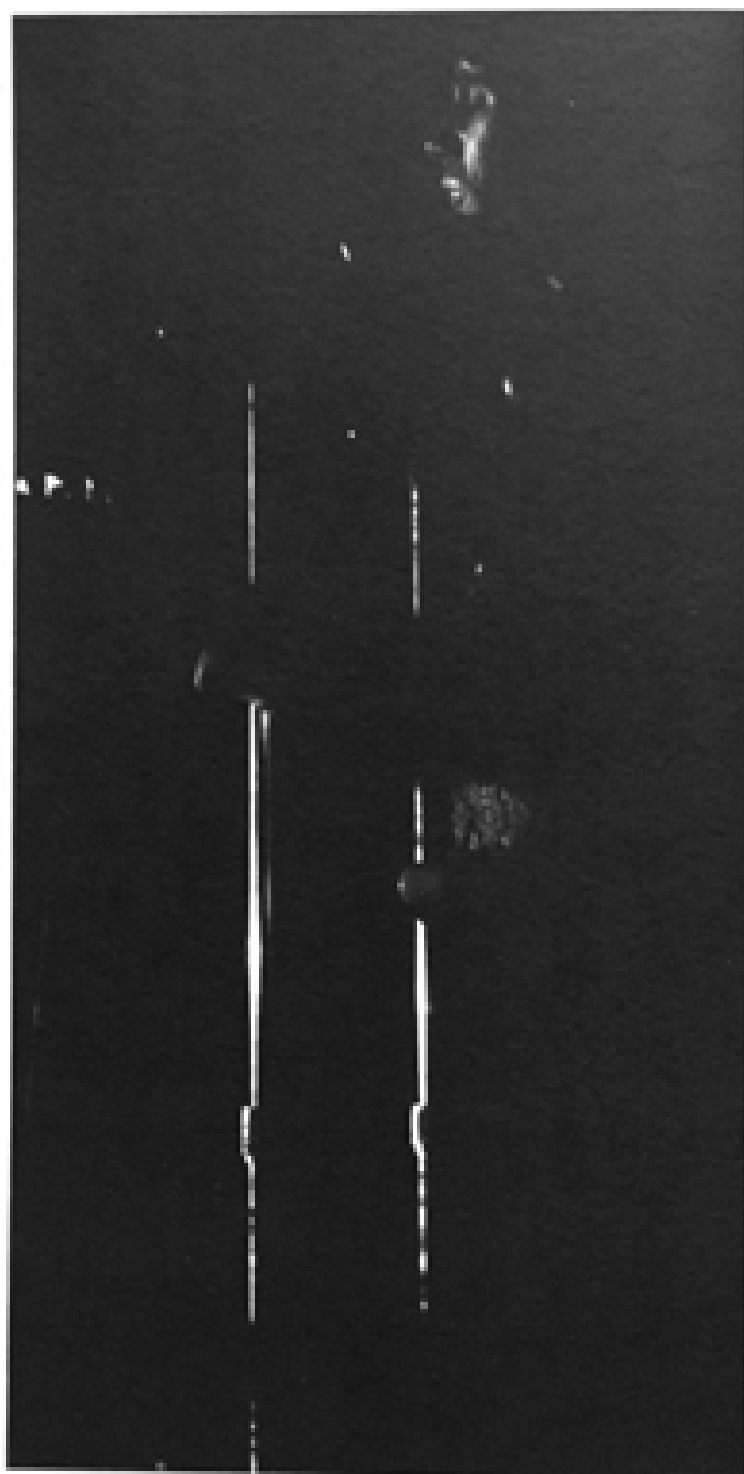

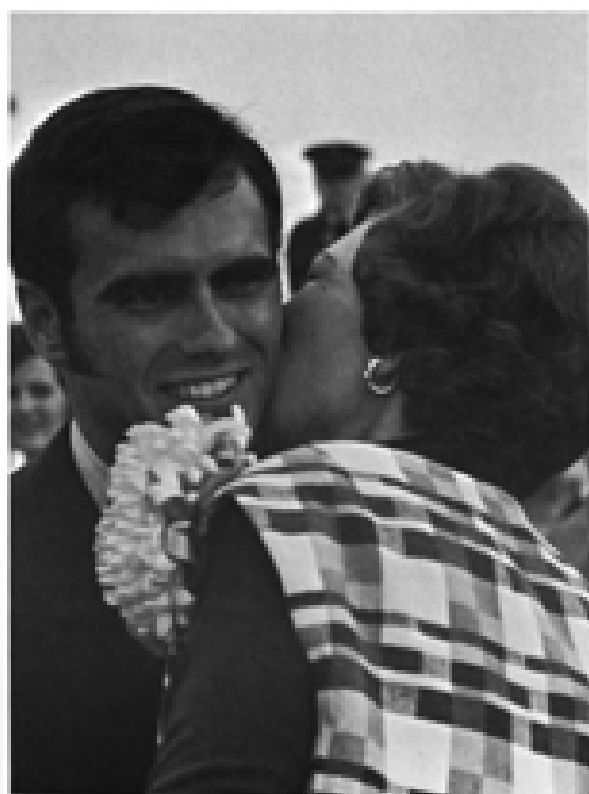

The Indian game (opp), a product of a century of Miners, was the highlight of the Centennial Weekend all school outing. Glen Conger, chosen Father Time, receives the blessing of Mrs. Merl Baker (left). The Happenings (opp. top, left and right) provided entertainment for Miners and their dates on Saturday evening after the football game. In an attempt to win its organization a keg of beer, a frog participates in Rolla's first annual frog jumping contest (opp. bottom).

Black Emphasis Week gave the black students of UMR a chance to present their culture to the entire student body. On Tuesday, Sept. 29, Mayor Charles Evers of Fayette, Miss. (opp. top) spoke on methods needed to achieve black goals. The preservation Hall Jazz band (above and left) provided a unique opportunity for students to have a better understanding of the roots of contemporary music. The Black Artist Group (BAG) presented modern black drama and poetry (opp. bottom).

On Saturday, October 3, the Student Union Board and Student Council co-sponsored the annual All-School Mixer. The Student Union Board sponsored an afternoon dance in the ballroom with music by Jake Jones (opp. bottom). Later in the evening The Steam performed for an outdoor concert sponsored by the Student Council (right and top center).

The Miners' tie with Southwest Missouri State foiled UMR's chance to win its first homecoming game in four years. Miss Folkl was escorted by her fiancé Bob Touzinsky.

Nitty Gritty Performs For Miners

St. Patrick Statue Presented

On Friday, October 23, the St. Pat's Board presented the University with a statue of St. Patrick. James McGrath (right), St. Pat of 1948, discusses the St. Patrick tradition. Rudolph Torrini (below), creator of the statue, gives a demonstration of sculpture for the student body and faculty.

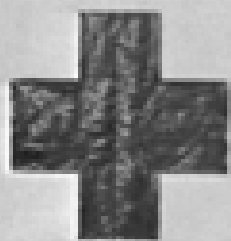

"We see the bad and want to fix it."

In September UMR was blessed with the Good Seed, its first underground newspaper. The purpose of the Good Seed was to inform the student body of the problems of the University and Rolla community. Among these problems were the plight of four Iranian students faced with deportation and the screw jobs of local book stores. The Good Seed also advised students on how to protect themselves from Zane White and his merry drug raiders. Consequently the newspaper was denounced by a local publisher for supporting drug use and for using obscenities in reference to local police. In general the Good Seed stimulated discussion among students concerning school and community problems.

Students Donate Over
80 Gallons of Blood

Twice this year Miners took the time to give blood. In November students donated 257 pints of blood and in March the Red Cross received 386 pints. This generous effort by all participating students helped the Red Cross save lives.

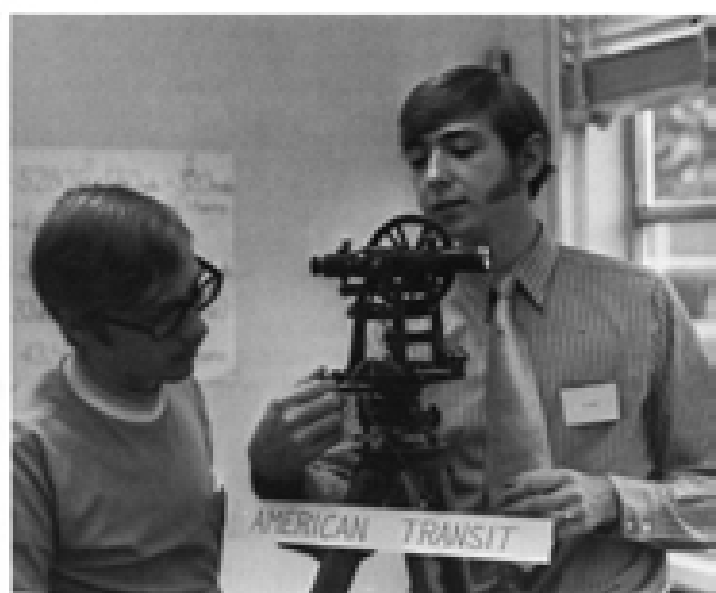

UMR Holds University Day

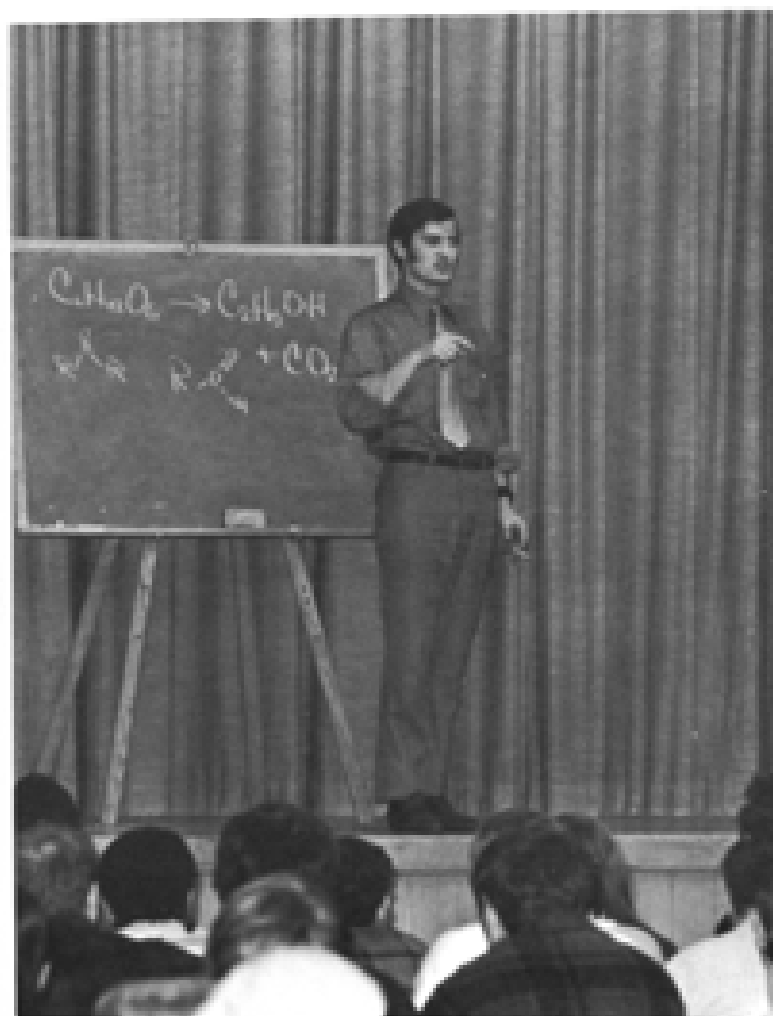

On Saturday, November 14, high school students and their parents came from all over the state to see what the University has to offer. Many UMR students helped make the displays which were held by all engineering and science departments and many of the humanities and social science departments. The I.C.C. and I.F.C. presented prospective students with information concerning housing in Rolla. Later in the afternoon, many visitors experienced their first UMR football game as they watched Cape Girardeau defeat the Miners.

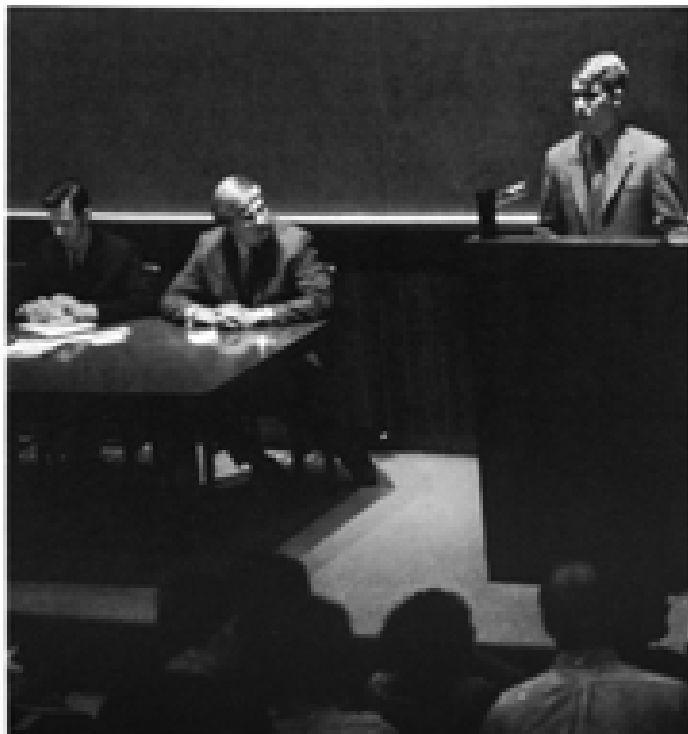

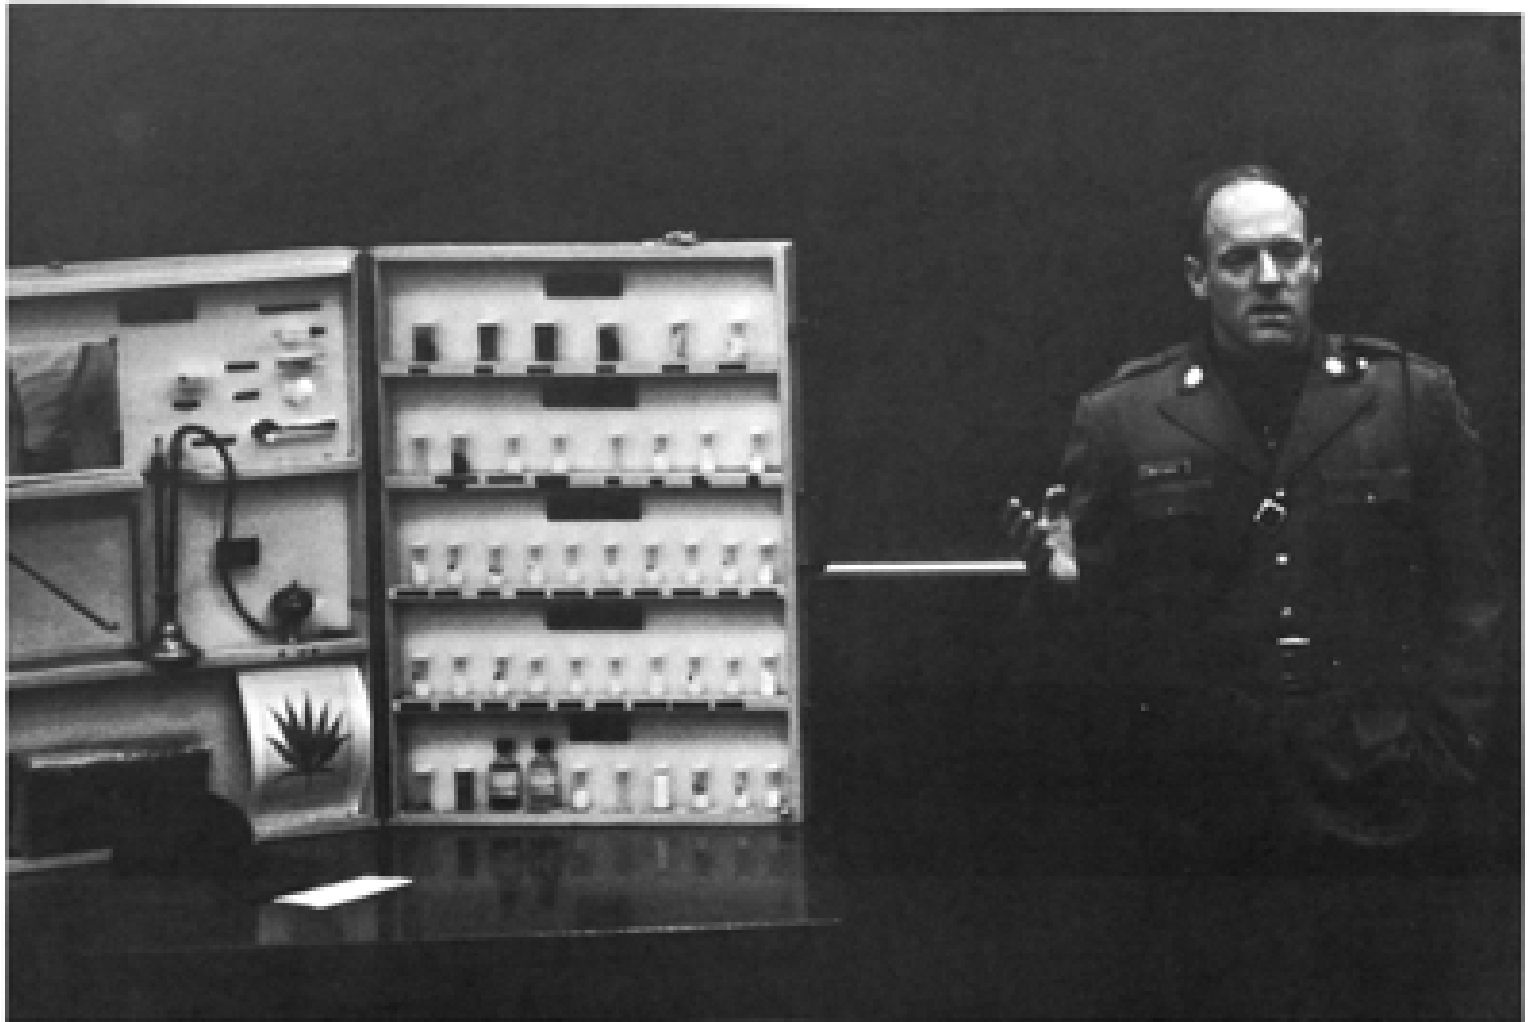

Centennial University Provides Enlightenment And Entertainment

Centennial Free University gave students a chance to learn about subjects of their choice without the worry of having to spit back the information for a professor. The Mid-East crisis, the draft, Vietnam, creative photography, booze making, sexual fulfillment, sexual perversion, and hypnosis were among the many topics discussed during the week. One of the most interesting lectures was presented by Mr. Merle Walker, who lectured on hypnosis. With the help of his subject, Bob Easterday, he demonstrated age regression (above left), and the ability of hypnosis to control the body (right). The art of fermentation and booze brewing was discussed by Joe Buccl (above right) of the Chemistry department.

DRUGS: A Rational Approach

Drug Education Week, sponsored by the Student Council, was an attempt to present an objective discussion about drugs. On February 3, Sgt. Roy Bergman, of the Missouri State Police (above), spoke to students concerning his experiences with drug users. On Thursday, February 4, the UMR Forensic Club held a debate dealing with the legalization of marijuana (left). Other events of the week included an open discussion about drugs on KMSM radio and a speech by Dr. Fred Montgomery, a psychiatrist from Fort Leonard Wood, on the effect of drugs upon the mind.

Kathy McGeehan Crowned Mil Ball Queen

On Saturday, February 13, Scabard and Blade hosted the 32nd annual Military Ball. Kathy McGeehan escorted by Phillip Caverno (opp.), was crowned Military Ball Queen by Colonel Vernon Loring (left). Among the guests who attended the ball were Congressman Richard Ichord and Dr. George Brown, Deputy assistant Secretary for Education.

The monotony of Rolla was broken somewhat by the Student Union General Lectures. In February Los Indios Tabajaras (opp. top), presented a performance featuring South American folklore and popular and classical instrumentals. Earthlight, a Los Angeles based theater group, (right) performed in December. They presented a series of short skits dealing with contemporary social and political problems. Central Missouri State's One and Only (opp. bottom) provided an entertaining evening of contemporary and popular music on March 3. The Rosewood Rebellion (above), a marimba group led by James Dutton of Chicago, performed for a capacity crowd and entranced the Miners with their musical imagery.

MC-5 and Sugarloaf
Perform for Miners

On Wednesday, Feb. 24, the MC-5 (below and right) filled the Multi-Purpose Building with their expressive acid-rock music. Perhaps it is a tribute to their Detroit background that a Missouri Miner article reported the smell of LDO drifting through the crowd during the performance. In any event, the MC-5 provided a fantastic performance for all the "undesirables" present. Superloaf (opp. top and bottom) finished out the year's General Lectures with a performance featuring pre-released music as well as hits from their past two albums.

The purpose of the university is education, and education is more than 18 hours of classes a week. The interchange of ideas between students, faculty, and outside speakers plays an important part in the educational process. This year the Student Union Fine Arts Committee sponsored two very interesting and informative lectures. In October Nat Hentoff delivered a lecture entitled "The Roots of Desent" which dealt primarily with the Vietnam war and modern education. In April David Dellinger, of the Chicago 7, spoke about the Vietnam war. Both speakers were on Congressman Richard Ichord's list of radical speakers who supported subversive activities with money obtained from college campuses. Ichord, U.S. Representative from Missouri's 8th Congressional District, was scheduled to speak at UMR for free but decided to charge a fee in protest of the fee paid to David Dellinger. His speech dealt with the reasons he was charging a fee, a generalized description of the House Committee on Internal Security, and a denunciation of David Dellinger.

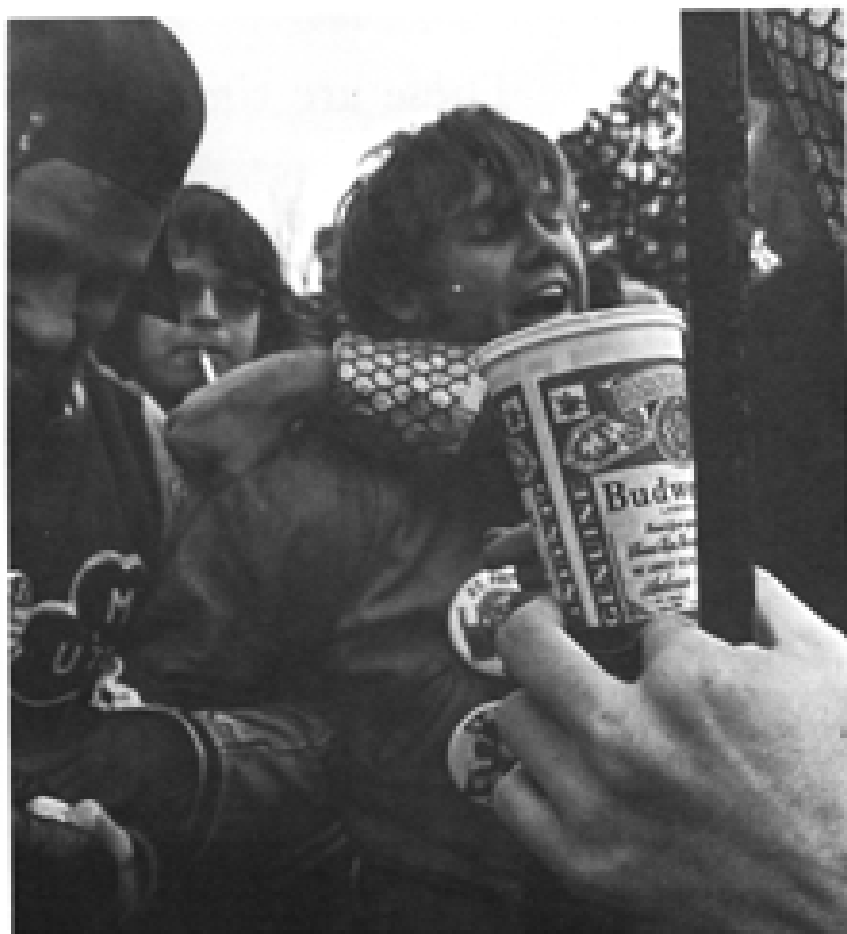

"These are times that try men's souls."

What was destined as the "Year of the Miner" in the MIAA fell short of expectations in the fall of 1970. After a 7-2 season in 1969 and with a squad enriched by 33 returning lettermen boasting young talent, the team and school awaited their first encounter of the season, a very formidable Washington University. The bears from St. Louis entered Rolla with winning thoughts, but the Miners, behind the spark of two powerful weapons, known as "Godwin-to-Somerville" and "The Golden Horde", started the season on the right foot with a 20-14 victory. The offense was mostly aerial as Pat Godwin passed for 211 yards, including a 47 yard strike to fleet receiver Bob Somerville. This performance was nearly overshadowed by the fine Miner defensive unit who held off the Washington U. offense for 7 consecutive plays inside the Silver and Gold's five yard line, in what proved to be the ultimately decisive series of the season opener.

Coming off the Washington U. contest, the Miners were somewhat disappointed with their overall performance but looked nonetheless forward to their encounter with the Missouri Valley Vikings. Mo. Valley entered the game with a potent offense, having scored over 80 points in their first two games. The Vikings had never beaten UMR in a football game and they were looking for an upset, which never came. The Miners foiled the Vikings with what was almost a carbon copy of the UMR victory over Washington U. It was again the tenacious defense of the "Horde" and the passing of Pat Godwin which put the Miner's record at 2-0. Improved execution and team discipline were also major factors in the win, and with these qualities showing up, the season was looking bright.

Silver and Gold Achieve Mid-Season National Ranking

The next contest was against the Bradley Braves and it was soon evident that the Miners were rolling. The offense moved the pigskin a total of 420 yards, the defense was tough and spirit was high. A particular personal achievement in this 28-7 win was a record 12 pass receptions by Bob Somerville for 172 yards, breaking the former record of 11 receptions held by Larry Oliver and Eugene Ricker. The confident Miners stormed past their next two opponents, Chicago-Circle and Maryville, and vaulted into a Top-Ten ranking in small college football. Against Chicago-Circle, who were classified by one Miner griddier as "worse than high school", UMR glided to a 53-0 win on some strong running by Steve Kubiak, fine team play, and a record seven straight conversions by place-kicker John Key. Maryville's Bearcats led twice early in the game, but it was only a matter of time before Steve Kubiak had amassed a school-record 227 yards rushing and Bob Berry had scored three times to insure a win. Co-Captain defensive back Fred J. White provided quite a bit of fireworks also with three interceptions and nearly 100 yards in punt and interception return yardage.

So at the halfway point in the season the Miners were 5 and 0, nationally ranked, had the nation's top receiver, the MIAA's leading quarterback, several young bulls at running backs, and an invincible defense. They also faced a homecoming game against a Springfield team that had scored 39 points in four games while their opposition had racked up 121 points.

Everyone believed that it would be a walk-away victory for the Miners. Perhaps even the Miners believed that Southwest would be a pushover. Whatever the cause, the effects were certainly pro-Springfield. The Bears used what one source described as a "much improved defense" to stall the Miners, but it seemed as if they just became enlightened as to U.M.R.'s limited offensive patterns. They concentrated on plugging Kubiak's straight ahead hole in the line, double-teamed Somerville, and put an intensive rush on Godwin. The Golden Horde was fair on a fair afternoon, but not good enough as the Silver and Gold tied 14-14. Apparently the rest of the conference took note of Springfield's tactics and put them to effective use, for the Miners' second half of the season was clearly a reversal of the first half.

For a Halloween treat, the Miners traveled to Warrensburg to meet the Central Missouri State Mules and taste their 1st defeat of the season, 34-7. The UMR offense ran all over the field (except in the CMS end zone), moved the ball at will (inside their own 50 yard line), and compiled 500 yards, rushing and passing combined. However the lack of scoring by UMR could have been attributed in part to the fact that the Miner running backs apparently thought they could move faster with less weight, so they repeatedly dropped the football, and Warrensburg recovered it four times. A lone bright spot in the afternoon was a new reception record of 13 catches for Bob Somerville, breaking the one he set earlier in the season, and further establishing himself as the leading receiver in the MIAA.

(bottom right) This runner's eyes depict the fact that it may be the wrong time to have the ball. (opp. top) Steve Kutzka's face mirrors the action as the Miners are in trouble once more. (opp. bottom) "It was a nice try, but..."

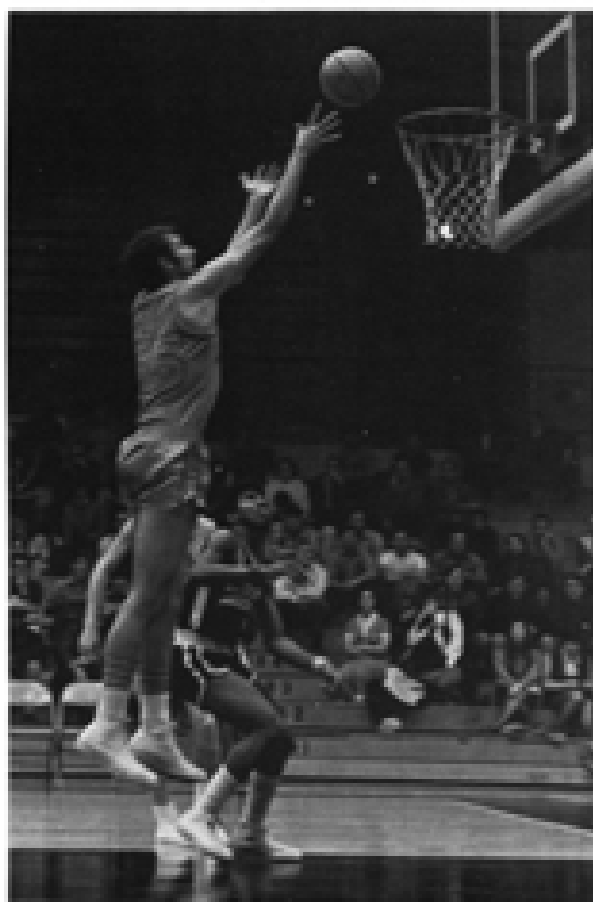

Following the solid defeat by the Mules, an old nemesis came to town to deal the Miners another thorough trouncing. Weaker than in past years, but still powerful enough to beat UMR 35-21, the Southeast Missouri State Indians dominated the action as well as the game on a cold November afternoon. The Indians totalled nearly twice as much total offense as Rolla's finest and delivered the final blow in crushing the Miner's conference title hopes.

Only two games remained for the Miners in which to salvage their season record and it took another school record to only halfway accomplish the job. Against the Kirksville Bulldogs, the Miners were thwarted again in their efforts, this time by a brilliant Kirksville passing combination. It was Thanksgiving day, however, which saw the Miners, led by Bob Berry, end the season on a winning note. Playing Lincoln University on a extremely cold windy day, hard-rushing Bob Berry carried the football a record 46 times and scored the Miners only touchdowns in leading the Silver and Gold to a 14-7 season finale.

Viewing the season as a whole, it could handily be termed "respectable". Several players had outstanding personal seasons, as was evident by the All-Conference honors, and the record books were rewritten. With that abundance of talent, why the string of late season disappointments? It could be attributed to many things; a strong conference, bad breaks, over-confidence, lack of team spirit, or maybe even adverse playing conditions. Whatever the cause, the development of a preventive would be a boon to Miner football because. . . . Oh, well, 6-3-1 was a "respectable" season.

UMR Cagers' Inexperience Shows in Early Going

Time was when the main nighttime winter activity in Rolla was to go watch the Miners try to win a basketball game. As of late, the odds are getting better. Resulting from an accelerated varsity program and some intensive recruiting by coaches Billy Key and Jerry Kirksey, the UMR basketball team is quickly becoming laden with talent. The Miners have perennially had at least one standout player, they now have several with that potential.

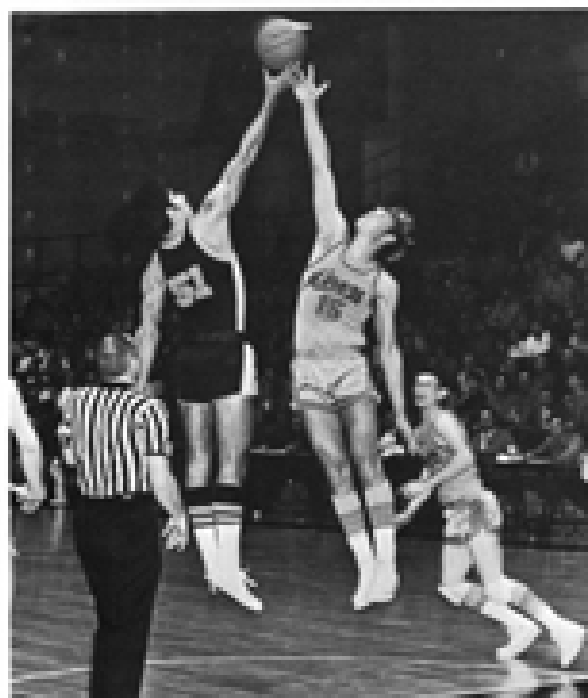

The 1970-71 basketball season had its ups and downs, with most of the downs coming very early in the season. Plagued mainly by their lack of experience, the Miners found the going tough, and soon were blessed with a 1-8 record. Most of their games were close, with UMR failing to respond with any type of clutch shooting in the final minutes.

Under the tutelage of Coach Key, though, the Miners began putting it together. With their second victory, an 86-82 decision over Lincoln University, the Miners rallied back to win seven of their next ten games. Along the way they dropped a 68-67 heartbreaker to N.E. Missouri State but defeated S.W. Missouri State for the first time in Coach Key's tenure here and for the first time in 20 years.

LeGrand, Coach Key, (opp. bottom) Rich Peters shows why his All-MIAA selection was a just honor, (opp) The ever-hustling Eric Gredell sets out in hot pursuit of an errant pass, (right) Swift guard Rod LeGrand flashes by his defender.

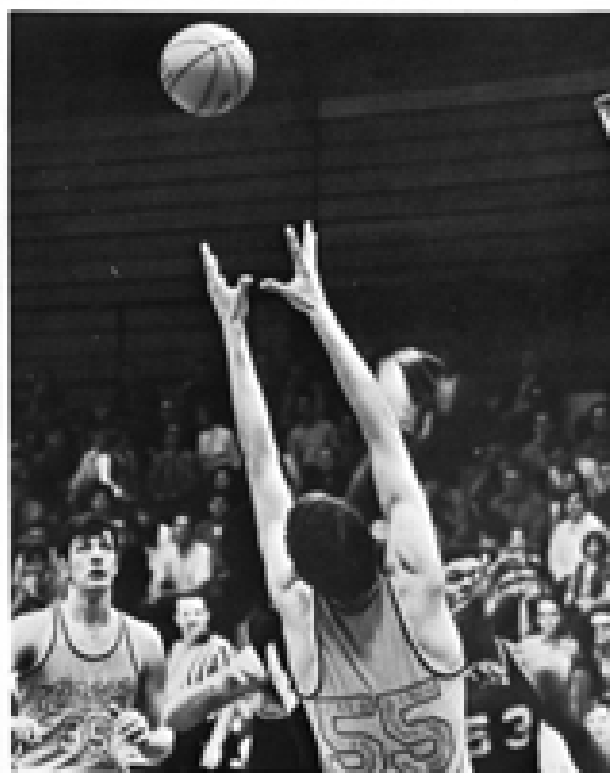

No longer were the Miners just several outstanding individuals, but instead they were becoming a team. Rich Peters, who received selection on the All-MIAA 2nd team, played remarkably well throughout the season, but it was when Tommy Noel, Rex Medlock, Eric Gredell, Rod LeGrand, and Rob Sandhaus jelled as an effective unit that the Miners started winning. It was not only the efforts of those starters, but the depth and talents of the bench which decided several contests.

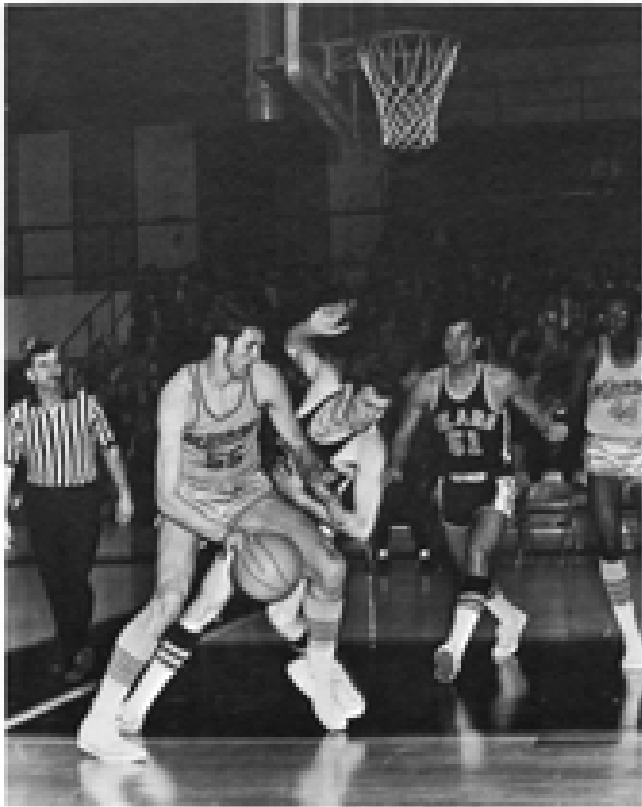

The Miners closed out the season by losing two of the last three games, but both losses were close, decided in the waning moments by a single basket.

The season was a relative success, with the final record being 9-13 despite the multitude of close losses. In the conference, the Miners were good enough to post a 5-7 record and finish fifth in MIAA competition. It was this performance which Coach Key noted as a highlight, because no previous Miner team had ever won more than three conference basketball games since UMR joined the MIAA. The defeat of SMS would rate recognition as another gratifying performance with the Miners finally eliminating the hex which Springfield had held for so long over UMR's roundball teams. Concerning personal achievements, Rex Medlock and Rod LeGrand also were named to All-MIAA Honorable Mention status for their seasons work. With the return of Peters, LeGrand and numerous others, UMR will field what will undoubtedly be one of their strongest cage teams ever. As long as coeds remain few, basketball will remain as Rolla's main winter nighttime activity, but if the team keeps progressing, well, who will care about coeds anyway?

(top) Attempting to control the tip, Stuart Scott leaps high as Rex Medlock moves down court. (bottom) Opponents found rebounds hard to come by when Rich Peters attacked the boards. (top left) In breaking the Springfield jinx, the Miners played a very physical, hard-nosed basketball game. (top right) Paul Pederson found out the hard way that other teams play tough basketball, too. (opp. bottom) With third down and three to go, Springfield chose to quick kick, which from the looks of things, took the Miners by complete surprise.

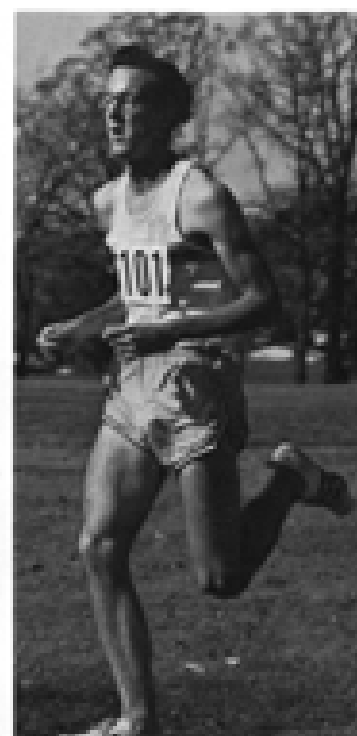

Experience Gained Makes Season Worthwhile

Harriers Find Competition Tough, Courses Tricky

The U.M.R. Cross Country team opened the season this year with new coaching and young talent, as well as seasoned veterans. They were also ready to do everything they could to improve their record over that of 1969. Anchoring the squad was Junior Bob Rice who during the season set a new school record over the five mile distance. Other standouts were Mike Kozacik and Dave Daum, who with Rice, represented U.M.R. in the Nationals at Wheaton, Illinois. The other team members, Paul Welsch, John Wentsley, Bob Virgin, and Jim Hellewege all had fair seasons but did not fare as well as anticipated. Coaches Ed Tharp and Keith Browne did their best to maintain a tough but balanced workout schedule and keep the team mentally prepared.

The Miners ended the season on a bit of a sour note, taking 6th place out of seven conference teams in the MIAA conference meet. In that meet the whole squad turned in somewhat subpar performances. The most memorable meet of a 4-5 dual meet season would probably be the one against Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. With only 200 yards left in the race, Bob Rice and Dave Daum, running third and fourth at the time, took a wrong turn, and by the time they discovered their mistake, had been passed and dropped to fifth and sixth in the race. Rather disappointing, but wait till next year. Instead of a wrong turn, maybe our harriers will find a short cut.

Golfers Putt Around in Scotland; Second in Conference

Coach Bud Mercier's golf team again achieved a relative standard of success by compiling a superb record and a second place finish in the conference. Anchoring the Miners were two year returning lettermen Mike Mulvaney, Gary Hamilton and Mike Davis.

The Miners opened their spring season under adverse conditions in a tri-meet with Arkansas State University and University of Minnesota-Morris. Led by veteran Jim McCracken who won the gold medallion for the meet, the Miners posted a second place finish.

As a special treat for the Miners over the Easter Vacation, they journeyed to St. Andrews in Scotland to participate in the St. Andrews Intercollegiate golf tournament. Although the Miners failed to finish high in the competition, it proved to be quite a thrilling experience for the golfers to play in the 300 year old birthplace of golf.

After their trip to Scotland, the Miners returned to competition and posted a split in a five team tournament. Led by Alan Carson who shot a 70 good for the runner-medalists, the Miners picked up steam for the ensuing conference tournament. As a prelude to the conference tournament, the Miners rolled up victories over Lincoln U. and N.E. Mo. Veteran Mike Sease was very instrumental in these victories and merited himself with the honor of co-medalist.

The Miners then entered into the MIAA golf championships with aspirations of finishing high and even possibly winning the conference crown. Jim McCracken led the Miners to a very respectable second place finish and thus climaxed a very successful season for the Miners. Coach Mercier and his squad should certainly be commended for their efforts in this outstanding performance marked by superb team work and individual accomplishments.

The 1970-71 U.M.R. Tennis Team, behind the coaching of Ray Morgan, volleyed and slammed their way to a fine season record in dual competition and a third place finish in the MIAA. The team was led by Dan Mullen, a steady performer who stepped in to fill the number one position vacated by the graduating Joe Reynolds. Battling for second position were Dick Herrin and Carter Njus, both of whom finished well in conference competition. Also contributing their talents were Dave Vogelpohl, Paul Pedersen, Chuck Rogge, and Mark Curtis.

Although the Miners were 4-0 in conference competition before the conference meet, their finish was far from disappointing. Considering that the Miners have no recruiting program for tennis as do many other schools in the MIAA, third place was outstanding, and with all the netmen returning in 1971-1972, U.M.R. may very well be in position for an MIAA championship.

Tennis Team Stages Respectable Finish in M.I.A.A.

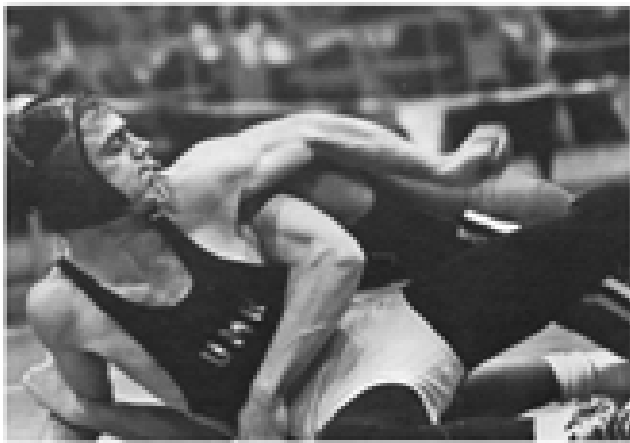

Due to two months of pre-season running and lifting under the leadership of Co-Captains Bob "Spider" Morrison and Les Robertson, the grapplers entered the 1970-71 season in superb condition. Coach Joe Keeton then picked up the team for their trip through the wrestling season.

The opening match against Evangel ended with a Miner win. Their second outing of the season, a fourth place finish in the Warrensburg quad was followed by a two week X-mas vacation. Christmas offered no gifts for the Miners as they dropped four straight dual meets and finished 11th in a 14 team tournament in Springfield. Among the dual meet defeats were by conference powers N.E. Mo., N.W. Mo., C.M.S., and always tough S.I.U.—Edwardsville, coached by world wrestling champ Larry Kristoff.

Pulling out of their tailspin with three consecutive victories, the Miners bested the teams from Mo. Valley, William Jewell and Evangel. Mo. Valley avenged its loss to the Miners with a victory on the U.M.R. mats. Bouncing back once again with two straight victories over tough Chicago-Circle and Washington University, the Miners greatly improved their record. The Miners were never able to score a string of victories to this point, and they seemed determined not to spoil this average as they met Cape Girardeau in a match which ended up as a tie. They then closed their dual meet season with a loss to S.W. Mo. and a trouncing of Lincoln University.

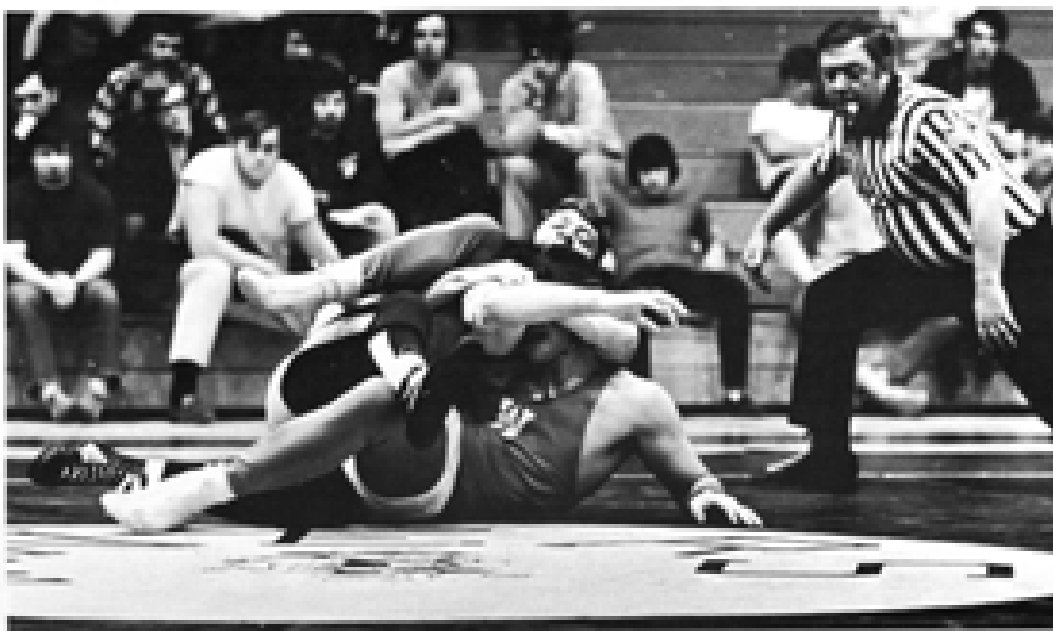

The grapplers finished 6th in the conference tournament. Co-Captain Les Robertson finished 1st in the 134 lb. division. Finishing 2nd for the second year in a row was U.M.R. heavy-weight Gary McAlpin. In the 126 lb. class Bob Gregory placed 4th. The Miners sent Les Robertson to the Nationals in Fargo, North Dakota where he was defeated in his first match.

With a final record of 7 wins, 6 losses, and 1 tie, the Miners brought their two year total record to 12-9-1. Considering that this is only their second year as a wrestling team, the record seems to be very respectable. It leaves much room for improvement, but with 12 returning lettermen, most of which are Juniors and Sophs, the Miner future on the mats looks bright. The U.M.R. wrestling team is growing and becoming progressively stronger.

"There were a few calls by the judges that could have went either way, and they all went against us. We just didn't get a break."

Those were the words of swimming Coach Bob Pease in describing the Miners tankmen's second place finish behind Southwest Mo. State in the MIAA conference meet. The exact words were lacking, but the insinuation by Coach Pease was that the Miners were the victims of some poor officiating as they missed conference championship by a mere five points. Still, this was the highest finish in MIAA competition of any varsity team fielded by U.M.R.

Though it was a great disappointment, the conference meet was an exciting finale for a sparkling overall season. Led by All-American swimmer Rick Marshall, the Miners compiled a record of 7 wins and 2 losses in dual meets, losing only to a powerful Drury College team and John Brown University. Traveling to Conway, Arkansas, the Miners staged an impressive performance in the Hendrix Relays and the Hendrix Classic, finishing fourth of 15 teams in the Relays and capturing first place out of 6 teams in the Classic. Also included in the season was a third place finish in the eight-team Cape Relays.

In pinpointing a reason for the overwhelming success of U.M.R.'s tankmen, team depth would rate as a large factor. For the season, a total of 14 school records were broken, and swimmers Jack Belshe, Jim Entwistle, Jim Glasa, Mark Hanneke, Lance Killoran, Ron Dutton, and Steve Peppers all played important roles.

As the saying goes, there's always next year, and with 14 returning lettermen, the Miners swimmers may well close next year's season as MIAA champions.

Inexperience Hinders 71 Season; Future is Bright

The Miner baseballers found the going tough as the diamond crew completed the 1970-71 season with a mediocre record. The Miners, fielding a predominantly young team, started off their season very impressively with a twinbill sweep over William Penn. Coach Lyle G. Rhea was very pleased with the early season performances of pitcher Dwight Stack and rookie Ross Bacon.

The Miners then journeyed to the School of the Ozarks where they suffered their first setback of the season. Control problems plagued Miner pitchers but coach Rhea was again impressed with the pitching of Soph Jim Gegg and the hitting of Ross Bacon.

The Miners soon returned to their winning ways with another twinbill sweep, this time over conference foe Northeast Missouri State. Bolstered by the tight pitching of Dwight Stack and Dave Kim, and coupled with tight defense and timely hitting, the Miners gained a second place berth in the conference standings. But the Miners short-lived success and hopes for a conference title were soon terminated by Southwest Missouri State Bears. The Miner hurlers fell prey to the overwhelming hitting attack, and this, coupled with control problems produced two sound defeats. Meanwhile Miner hitters scattered their hits and failed to generate any sound support.

For their next encounter, the Silver and Gold traveled to Warrensburg to face the first place Mules in a must doubleheader for the Miners. But to their dismay, the Miners were again dealt a double setback. The experience and poise of the veteran Warrensburg team proved to be too much for the young Miners. Jim Gegg pitched outstanding baseball in the first game that was paralleled by an equally superb performance by the Miners infield. But again the Miners' bats were stymied by the relentless pitching of the Mules and failed to produce any sufficient hitting support.

For the remainder of the season the Miners seemed to digress. Plagued by sporadically poor pitching, the Miners would have to play catch up ball at the plate. And whenever the pitching was right, the Miners' bats would remain silent. The Miners dropped five of their next seven contests and their season record dipped to 7-12.

Thus ended a somewhat disappointing but very beneficial season for the young inexperienced Miners. Although the Miners failed to achieve a high finish in the conference, the gaining of experience and the blossoming of young talent could greatly enhance Miner chances as a serious contender for next season.

The Miner's Track Team found their 1971 Track season comparable to that encountered by Miner Teams in other sports. The thinclads fared very well in the non-conference meets but found limited success in the highly competitive MIAA conference.

Very impressively, the Miners opened their outdoor track season by soundly thrashing Missouri Valley College as they won 11 of 17 events. Leading the Miners was stalwart Don Hemenover with two firsts in the 120 yard high hurdles and 440 intermediate hurdles.

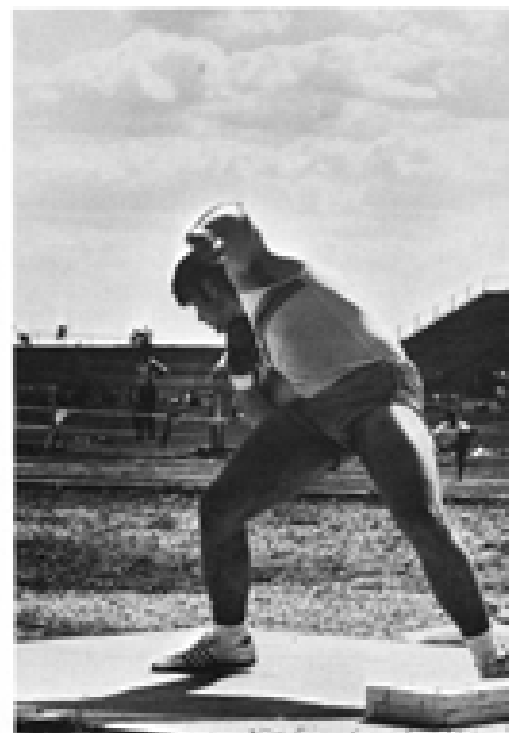

The Miners then displayed another example of fine team balance as they very decisively defeated Washington University by sweeping 11 of 17 events. Again it was Don Hemenover joined by Jim Wassilak posting double victories in their events to lead the Miners to victory.

Journeying to Springfield for their first real test of the season in the SMS relays, the Miners found the competition to be extremely rugged as they achieved only a mediocre performance.

The Silver and Gold then returned home for two dual meets, the first which was a rout of the School of the Ozarks. The Miners captured 11 of 17 events and with old reliable Don Hemenover contributing dual wins as did sprinter Eric Potts. In their next dual meet the Miners were thwarted by a strong SMS team in a very close meet. Coach Finley was very pleased with the cindermen's improving performances in the two meets, especially with the SMS meet, very indicative of the highly competitive MIAA Conference.

Conference Competition Proves to be too Tough

As the climax of track season, the Miners hosted the 43rd annual MIAA Track Championship. The Miners, with aspirations of finishing high, were again thwarted in their efforts by the superior conference opposition. The Miners need not be embarrassed by their poor finish as ten conference records were shattered along with five school records as the athletes surpassed previous performances.

In retrospect, being fully cognizant of the Miners poor conference finish, the 1971 outdoor track season certainly was very successful when one considers the caliber of competition in the MIAA conference. The Miners broke a total of eight school records led by Bob Rice who shattered the old marks in the two and three mile run. Don Hemenover and Bill Dahm posted new marks in the 120 yard high hurdles and the 440 intermediate hurdles respectively. Curt Simmons achieved a new record in the shotput. Also setting new school records were the 440 and mile relay teams. Nevertheless, the Miners must continue to improve at a more accelerated rate if they aspire to improve in the conference next year.

In a stunning contest of agility and stamina Lambda Chi defeated the psyched up Kappa Sigma team to claim the coveted first place trophy in Intramural football following a spectacular year of regular league play. Lambda Chi stormed into the finals to meet one of the best all around teams of the year. The final tally found Kappa Sig holding a 20-14 defeat. In this, the final intramural football game of the year, Lambda Chi took advantage of the many Kappa Sig mistakes and dealt out many tortuous blows at the unprepared Kappa Sig defense.

Early in the game the Kappa Sig team was harrassed by the Lambda Chi defense to the extent that Kappa Sig shot off a quick pass that was intercepted by Lambda Chi and converted to a 6 pointer that was to be the final edge of the game. The game was quick. The teams were tough. The tension was so high that one could not condemn Kappa Sig for their early misques which ultimately lead to their defeat.

T.J. Wins Basketball in Overtime Battle

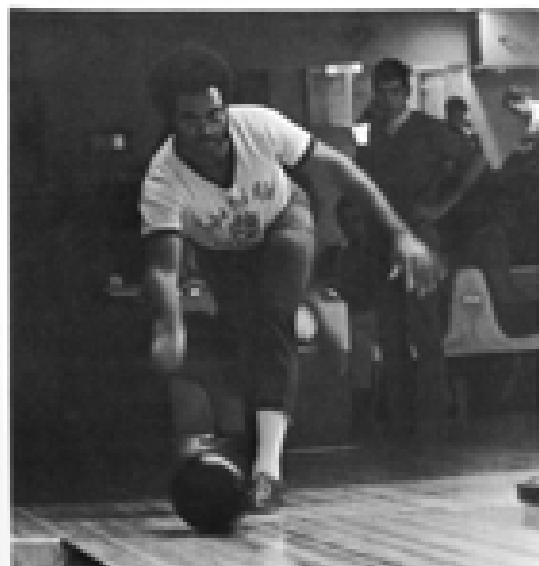

In what was probably the most exciting intramural basketball game of the year, T.J. sneaked by favored Tech club by 2 points just as the overtime buzzer sounded to emerge as come-from-behind victors.

Tech club was the team favored to win due to their first place record of last year, and their excellent balanced attack on the hardwoods against opponents in regular league play.

Although it was a harrowing back and forth battle throughout the entire game, Tech club had a two point lead with less than 10 seconds of regulation play. T.J.s' Vinnie Budd managed to connect with a long jump shot that sent the game into overtime. Both teams missed chances to pull ahead until Terry Frake laced the net with a short jumper which proved to be the decisive tally in the thrilling fight for the championship.

Although not one of the more well known sports, and not even recognized as a sport by many, table tennis does provide worthwhile recreation and also helps to gain intramural points for the organizations and provide many hours of entertainment for the participants. This year the trophies went to Shamrock who took the singles title with Jarupanich beating the opposition from T.J. Tang and Lam also of Shamrock captured the doubles plaques by defeating the team from Sigma Phi Epsilon.

This years bowling tournament turned out to be the closest in I.M. bowling history as Thomas Jefferson squeaked by MRHA by rolling a total of 2672 compared with 2671 pegged up by MRHA. The game went down virtually to the wire as the teams concentrated fiercely on the pins at the end of the lane. Another indication of the toughness of the match can be seen in the scores for high Triple Series. Geers of MRHA rolled a 591 series while Sims of T.J. came up with 590.

Engine Steams Across Teke in Volleyball Finals

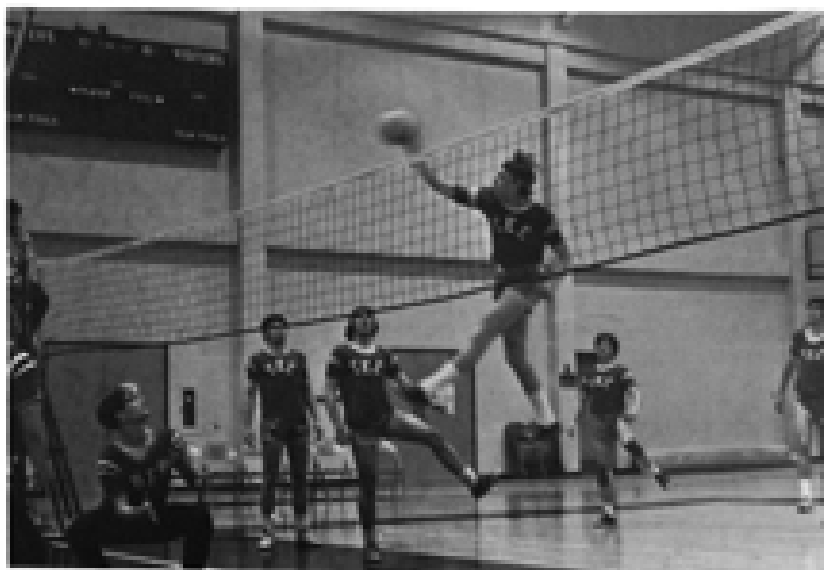

(top) Don Schlechte of Beta Sigma Psi appears to be in slight disagreement with the line judges about where the ball happened to land. (middle) Engine Club accepts the first place trophy as 1970-71 I.M. Volleyball Champs. (bottom) Dennis Meier shows one reason why Teke stormed into the finals in volleyball.

Engine club, after an easy win during regular league play, stymied the TEKES with two rather lopsided scores 21-11 and 21-6 to gain the first place trophy in volleyball. The final contest found both teams to be in excellent shape while expecting tough competition. An indication of Engine clubs' prowess is seen not only in the scores, but by noting that they had two very long scoring streaks in the second game. They jumped out for a whopping lead of 11-0 and temporarily slowed while TEKE narrowed the margin at 13-6. From that point TEKE succumbed as Engine ran up the next eight points non-stop for the final 21-6 win.

Engine was all team work as they constantly fed their front line setting crew which did a fantastic job of placing the ball for their two main spikers Ed Emory and Dick Graham.

The 32 team roster found Phi Kap and Beta Sig tied for the third slot and Kappa Sig and Lambda Chi tied for fifth.

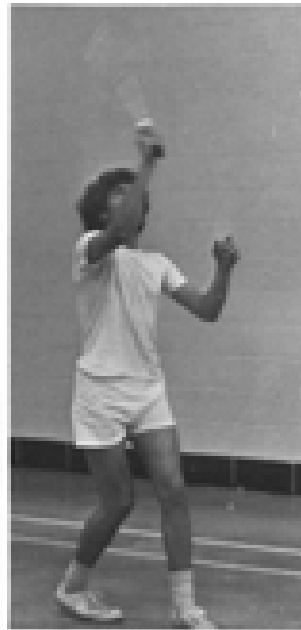

I.M. Swimming No Contest as Kappa Sig Wins

Grabbing the top slot in 5 of the 9 swimming events, Kappa Sig smartly trounced the entire field by leaving their closest opponent with less than half as many points as their own winning score. The combined effort of the Kappa Sig team paid off as their swimmers set intramural records in two events. Kruetz posted a time of 1:08.4 to set a new record in the 100 yard individual medley and the second record fell for Kappa Sig under the combined efforts of Colwell, Martenfeld, Ferry and Burkemper as they turned in a time of 1:47.9 in the 200 yard freestyle relay. In the 50 yard butterfly contest, Carrol, swimming for MRHA was clocked at 28.7 sec. for a new record. Yack of Lihona bested the old record in the 50 yard freestyle with a time of 26.1 seconds. Participating for Engine club, Richmond won the 50 yard breast stroke in a time of 32.9 seconds to break the fifth intramural record of the tournament.

(above) I.M. doubles champs Mike Godar and Steve Robertson await the serve of the runner-up Sig Ep team. (bottom right) As any of his opponents will tell you, handball singles champ Bill Scheckel can cover the court as well as two people can.

In this year's handball tournament, Phi Kappa Theta emerged victorious in a sport that is quickly gaining popularity on the Rolla campus. Taking first place in the doubles competition was Mike Godar and Steve Robertson who easily outplayed and outlasted all contenders. Making the game look simple, Godar, returning from last year's tournament, and Robertson, who mastered the game in one semester, both came out unscathed in the double elimination tournament.

In the singles division Dan Mullen, another returning handballer from Phi Kap was blasted by Bill Scheckel of Delta Sigma Phi. Scheckel looked fantastic as he covered the court and returned almost everything that came at him and outlasted young Mullen to claim the title for the singles intramural handball division.

Taking first place in both the singles and doubles divisions easily gave Shamrock the top slot in intramural badminton. Thanks to the combined efforts of Sibigtroth and Justus and the fine individual results posted by Tolame, Shamrock handily outpaced the opposition. Second place in the standings went to TEKE which captured second place in doubles competition, and third honors went to Sig Ep after they placed second in the singles division.

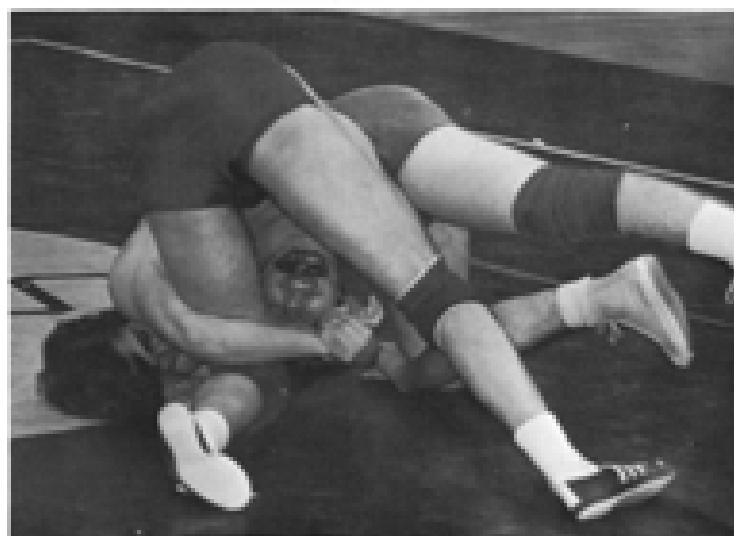

Minor I.M. Sports Provide for Fierce Competition

I.M. Wrestling: Kappa Alpha Still Champ

In a tournament entered by almost all campus organizations, Kappa Alpha proved to be the best all around intramural grappling team as they secured three first place positions which were earned by Jerry Ohlman, Mike Sheridar and Don Schell. With a final tally of 48 wrestling points, they bested the Phi Kap team which rounded up only 43 points, and T.J. with 30 points. Lambda Chi and Kappa Sig tied for fourth with 29 points apiece.

In what has to be the most rugged individual intramural sport on campus Kappa Alpha stormed across a large portion of the contestants on their way to retaining the intramural wrestling trophy. A very consistent winner during the tournament was Thomas Schmidt of T.J. who has won a first place plaque in wrestling for the last five wrestling seasons. Other firsts were earned by Roy Woods of Delta Tau Delta, Steve Sewell of MRHA who was awarded the Mike Klosterman award, Jack Rose of Kappa Sig, Wild Bill Behrens of Phi Kappa Theta, and Mike Georges and Gary Lohman both of Lambda Chi Alpha. All of the many contestants turned out in fine physical shape and provided four days of exciting matches for the intramural program.

Phi Kaps Rip Through Softball with Surprise Upset

Phi Kappa Theta, in a sport in which they were not even supposed to place, came through unscathed for the entire season as they rolled over every opponent in their league on the way to the championship. Although the entire team played above their capabilities, the main credit for the totally unprecedented season goes to Rich Elmer who pitched brilliantly for the entire season to propel the Phi Kap team into the championship tournament. The Phi Kap hurler kept a tight rein on the opposition while the team tried continually to have the one big inning of the game which developed into their trademark for victory.

The final game which proved to be somewhat of a see-saw battle found Kappa Sig taking second honors. After a rather dull beginning, Phi Kappa Theta found the fourth inning to be their mainstay as they put together a series of hits for a seven run spurt which clinched the game and assured the Phi Kaps of another first for the intramural year.

Alpha Phi Alpha Speeds to I.M. Track Title

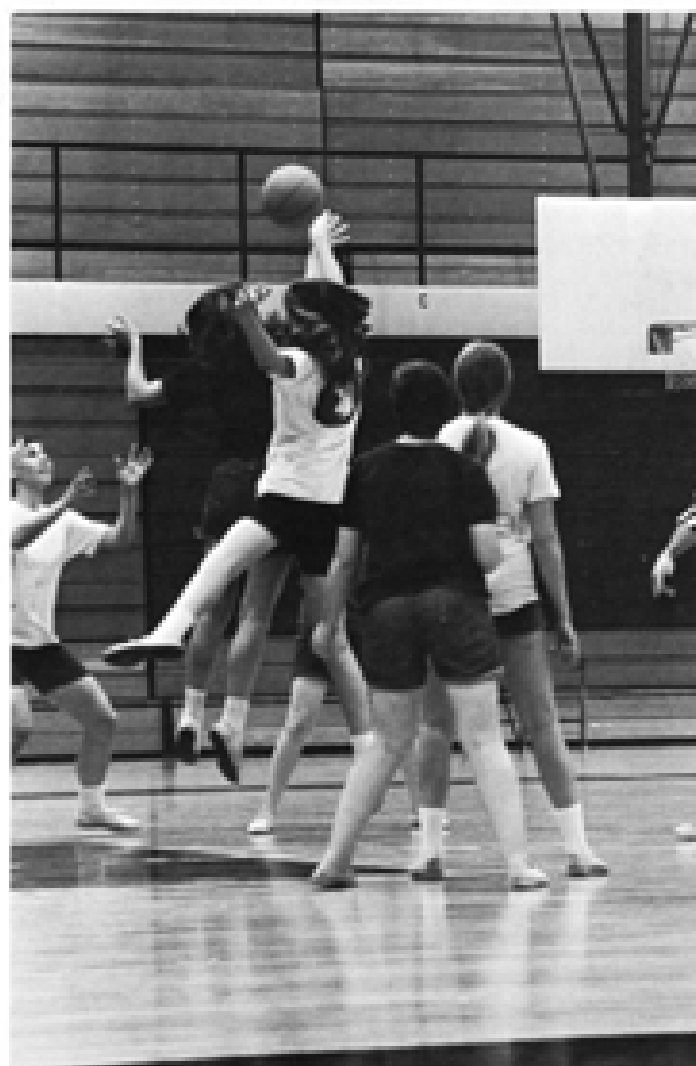

Intramural track provided an exciting climax for an enjoyable year of intramurals. Leading the pack was Alpha Phi Alpha with 22½ points. Alpha Phi was closely followed by M.R.H.A. which racked up 18 points. The outstanding performance of the meet was turned in by intramural "Man Of The Year", Dave Sibigroth. Representing Shamrock, big Dave chalked up a double victory in the 50 and 100 yard dash. Not satisfied with winning the 100 yard dash merely by being first, Dave broke the old record with a time of 10.1 in the preliminaries. Also turning in noteworthy results was Larry Probst of Beta Sigma Psi with a discus heave of 130'7". Jim Geers also made a fine showing in the long jump with a leap of 21'5".

Boasting a rather surprising five teams to compete in 10 intramural sports, the Rolla coeds found a good variety of contests to compete in during the 1970-71 intramural program. Ranging from rather calm activities such as ping pong, badminton, and tennis through golf, bowling, and swimming, to rather tough and supposedly masculine sports such as basketball, volleyball and track, the girls intramural program is coordinated to provide a means for the average Rolla coed to obtain some physical, and sometimes rather strenuous exercise. Lambda Sigma started off the year by capturing first and second place in tennis singles and held onto the lead by sweeping the golf tournament, but was interrupted in their streak as T.J. handed them the second place trophy in the I.M. swimming and then continued their own streak by taking the pole position in the basketball competition. Both teams tied in the ping pong tournament giving Lambda Sigma and T.J. 2 and $\frac{1}{2}$ trophies each. It continued to be a tight race as T.J. posted still another first by beating Lambda Sigma in the volleyball program, and also captured the bowling trophy in a one pin edge over Rolla 1. Lambda Sigma helped to keep the see-saw functioning as they grabbed first in the tennis tournament. T.J. finished out the year with a second in track, and third in a sport unique to the intramural program, archery. T.J. emerges as the girls I.M. trophy holder by accumulating 5 first places and a total of 230 intramural points, well ahead of Lambda Sigma with 193.50, Rolla 1 with 175.50, WRHA with 85.25, and Wesley with 56.50 I.M. points.

KMSM-FM

KMSM is UMR's Student managed and operated FM Broadcast radio station. With studios located in the Old Cafeteria Building, KMSM operated at 88.5 MHz serving the campus and surrounding community with 95 hours of entertaining and educational programming each week that classes are in session. This year, KMSM's musical offerings included Rock and Folk, plus Classical, Contemporary, Easy listening, and Jazz programs—reflecting the tastes of UMR students. Detailed program schedules were printed each semester in the KMSM PROGRAM NOTES. KMSM is "right-on radio for Rolla"—the student voice of the Missouri Miners!

Sportscaster Gus Heck does double duty playing records for the Monday night show.

Miner

The Miner was plagued by troubles early this year, but under the guidance of Editor-in-chief Roger Ellis it proved capable of overcoming them. Improvements not only occurred in the financial, editorial, and advertising structure of the paper, but were also witnessed in the form of a new darkroom, replacing the old, closet-sized facility. The photography staff was overjoyed at this improvement, but the highlight of the year for the staff came when the Miner was named "Number One Missouri College Newspaper" in Class B Competition. This climaxed a truly successful year, and the staff is looking forward to an even better one next year.

Student Council

Appropriately, our Centennial year has served as a changeover from our first hundred years to our second, with signs of a brighter future for the student's role in the academic community. The main change brought about was the formation of the "Campus Communications Council," which should bring realization to much of the optimism that went into its making.

Besides the standing functions of providing general lectures, answering petitions, holding timely referendums, and many others, the Council sponsored several special events throughout the year, including Centennial Party Weekend, Centennial Free University, Drug-Education Week, Ecology Week, a special investigation and report on our infirmary facilities, a drive to aid the disaster stricken in Pakistan, and many more. Thanks to all who have helped.

Student Union Board

Charles Evers, invited to UMR by the Student Union Board, spoke to a capacity crowd during Black Emphasis Week.

Four officers and six directors comprise the Student Union Board which plans the affairs of the Student Union. Assisted by 150 committeemen, the Board sponsors events which are held to fulfill the individual student's recreational, social, and cultural needs. This year, the Hospitality Committee adopted a family with funds earned from their Christmas bake sale and sponsored a fashion show. Art displays, the MC-5, Earthlight Theater, Los Indios Trabajaras, Mayor Charles Evers, and Nat Hentoff were sponsored by the Fine Arts Committee. Recreation chose the Sunday movies and held games and tournaments. The Social Committee selected bands for the annual All-School Mixer, and Christmas and Valentine dances. They also decorated the Union at Christmas. Their latest event is the Over-the-Hump Thursday dances. The Special Events Committee planned all Homecoming activities. New this year were rap sessions with the administration and a talent show.

St. Pat's Board

Early this year, the dedication of the eight-foot statue of St. Pat assured that he will live forever at UMR. St. Pat again arrived on time this March with his traditional hand car ride and tapping of the green beer. Friday afternoon the festivities at Lion's Club Park included the various drinking, beard, and shillelagh contests. Later that evening was the Honorary Knights' banquet and coronation where distinguished guests, including U.S. Senator Stuart Symington and Miss Dominion of Canada, were welcomed to UMR. The crowning of the Queen of Love and Beauty was followed by a dance featuring the Classmen.

With a cool breeze, but sunny sky, the biggest parade to date rolled through the green-painted streets of Rolla. This year's theme, "Tall Tales", presented many beautiful floats and featured numerous bands, antique cars, and non-float entries.

Then on with the beer drinking and fun! The knighting ceremony for the honored men of each organization brought capacity crowds and was followed by the free concert featuring the Grass Roots.

Blue Key

This year the members of Blue Key acted not only as a national honor fraternity, but they also did much along the lines of service. Starting right at the beginning of the year was the Blue Key Student Directory, a complete listing of all students on campus. Also, the men of Blue Key, having proven their campus leadership before granted a spot in the organization's limited initiation, sponsored, for the third time, a leadership school for underclassmen. Taught by the members themselves and distinguished faculty, this program did much to further the leadership potential of the freshman and sophomore classes.

Intercollegiate Knights

The Intercollegiate Knights, a national honorary, service fraternity, has had its busiest year under the leadership of Jon Kremer, the Duke. The concession stands at football games were manned entirely by IK's; the centennial license plates were available through IK only; the regional IK convention was held at UMR in November; the annual IK Ball was a tremendous success; IK's provided tour service on Parent's Day and University Day; they gave a Christmas dinner to an underprivileged Rolla family; and donated many hours of work to the Skill Builders School. They also helped out the Library staff by sorting books and replacing covers. Attempting to establish an auxiliary girl's chapter, IK named a monthly Duchess, and from these chose their Chapter Duchess, Miss Deborah Scheller, a pretty freshman from Kirkwood, Mo. IK is proud of its high reputation on campus and in the community.

Gamma Alpha Delta

Gamma Alpha Delta is a community service organization and a tool to further the social awareness of its member houses. The organization consists of members from eighteen fraternities at the UMR campus. With the goals of service to the community, promotion of religious ethics, and making people aware of the wide scope of current events, Gamma Alpha Delta sponsored the following projects this year: Project Assist, a huge project of rehabilitating a whole city block in St. Louis. Rolla parks were cleaned up, repaired, and re-conditioned by groups from the active fraternity houses. They also worked with the Jaycees in cleaning a wooded area and building a camp for retarded children. In widening social outlooks, speakers, films, and exhibitions were presented at the various fraternity houses on current problems. Much credit must be given to Fred Lamar whose ideas and hard work have helped Gamma Alpha Delta gain its present status and receive national recognition and repeated mention in several national reports during the 1970-'71 school year.

Beta Omicron chapter of Alpha Phi Omega had a successful showing for the 1970-'71 school year, its thirty-first year at UMR. It served the student body well through semesterly book distribution. APO blotters could be found on nearly every student's desk. APO blood drives were very successful, going over the quota needed by the Red Cross. Also in community service, members spent many hours working with the local Boy Scouts. Once again, Beta Omicron has proved to be one of the top chapters in the nation.

Eta Kappa Nu

Eta Kappa Nu, the Electrical Engineering honor society, composed of men who have demonstrated scholarship and ability in Electrical Engineering, has again performed several service projects during the '70-'71 school year. These included providing laboratory insurance coverage to UMR students and assistance to the Rolla Diagnostic Clinic. Teaching aids such as special turntables and record players were donated to help handicapped children. Last fall forty-two men were initiated and twenty more members joined the roles this spring.

Sigma Gamma Epsilon

Sigma Gamma Epsilon is the national honor society for outstanding students of the Department of Geology and Geophysics and the Department of Mining, Petroleum, and Geological Engineering. On the UMR campus, Eta Chapter has been very active. Geology lab kits were assembled and sold, and geologic highway maps were made available for purchase. For the fourth year, Eta Chapter conducted a meaningful student evaluation of the faculty in two departments. Results have provided the faculty with ideas for improvements in student-faculty relations, both inside and outside the classroom. In the fall of the year, Eta Chapter sent three representatives to the national convention at Norman, Oklahoma. Through their efforts, student representation was initiated, and Eta Chapter was subsequently elected to provide the Student Vice President for the Central Province.

Theta Tau

Theta Tau, a national professional engineering fraternity, takes pride in the active support given by its brothers in working on the various campus and community projects. One of these projects was publishing the Theta Tau Calendar. Mums were again sold at Homecoming for the dates and wives of students. The annual Theta Tau "Freshman of the Year" award presented each fall, was won by Rick Marshall. Working with the Rolla community, Theta Tau presented the money collected from the "Ugly Man" contest to the South Central Missouri Shrine Club to be used for work with local handicapped children. Active support from the brothers was also noted at all social events sponsored by Theta Tau.

Sigma Pi Sigma

Sigma Pi Sigma, the national honor society within the Society of Physics Students, enjoyed a rather successful year. On both Parents' and University Days, the organization set up demonstrations in the advanced undergraduate Physics laboratories and conducted tours of these labs and the building. Later in the fall semester, the organization held a banquet honoring the newly elected members. In the spring semester the organization gave an award at the annual science fair for the best project in Physics. The local chapter is now in the process of reorganizing in order to be more solidly a part of the Society of Physics Students.

Keramos

This year, Keramos hosted the St. Louis Section of the American Ceramic Society during their visit to the UMR campus. In the fall, a class of seven new members were initiated into the honorary. They heard a speech by Dean T. J. Planje at their banquet. Keramos also helped prepare souvenirs for campus visitors on University Day. In the spring, the fraternity sponsored the annual Ceramic Department outing. The fraternity once again sponsored the "Outstanding Teacher Award," the "H. A. Award," the "Senior Honor Award," and the "Mudslinger," the departmental newspaper.

FRONT ROW: John Daniel; Henry Anthonis; Dennis Schubert; Glenn Conger, President

Phi Eta Sigma

Phi Eta Sigma is devoted to the educational improvement and scholastic achievement of all the students at UMR. The members seek the primarily intangible qualities that make a teacher a good one, and a campus a great one.

Each semester, Phi Eta Sigma recognizes two faculty members whom the members feel have fulfilled the high expectations of what a student desires from his teacher. These faculty are honored at a banquet and initiated into Phi Eta Sigma, along with any freshmen who made a 3.5 or better grade point average. In an attempt to instill the importance of good grades and high achievement in students before they get to college, it has become a tradition to present an award to a deserving entry in the District Science Fair.

Kappa Kappa Psi

During the fall marching band practices in preparation for a Cardinal football game, Kappa Kappa Psi took time off to sponsor a watermelon party to welcome the freshmen to the band. As the year progressed, football games were performed. Ending the marching season was the Fourth Annual Kappa Kappa Psi band banquet. The spring semester began with the Eighth Annual Junior High School Band Clinic, in which about 280 students participated. Throughout the whole year, the fraternity was working hard for the National Convention in August. The year ended successfully with an initiation and banquet for the new initiates, followed by the sponsoring of the annual band picnic in May. With its many interested and active members, the fraternity has promoted a better understanding of college band work and music.

M-Club, a service fraternity of varsity athletes, has sought to broaden its scope of service not only for UMR, but for the local communities as well. In addition to service to UMR, such as supplying information about varsity athletics to incoming freshmen, selling concessions at Miner basketball games, and sponsoring the M-Club All Sports Banquet, M-Club has begun to serve local communities by sponsoring a very successful Junior Olympics for grade school children. Future community service plans include clinics in major sports for grade children.

Tau Beta Sigma

In the first year following colonization, Tau Beta Sigma Honorary Band Sorority has made great progress in its role as a service organization. Under the very able leadership of Pat Cleveland and the tremendous support of Sister Joel Kramme, our chapter has grown in service, if not in size. The sisters have worked together with the brothers of Kappa Kappa Psi in sponsoring work projects, all-band mixers and parties, float trips, and the Annual Junior High School Band Clinic. As first chapter of Tau Beta Sigma in Missouri, we also had the privilege of installing chapters at Southwest Missouri State and Missouri Baptist College.

Scabbard & Blade

B Company, 16th Regiment, has been very busy this school year in a variety of activities. A dine-in was held at the Officers' Club at Fort Wood in which there was 100% active member participation. The annual Military Ball was held Saturday, February 18, with red hearts used as the decorating theme, in conjunction with Valentines Day. A large crowd was on hand to see Colonel Loesing, PMS, crown Kathy McGeehan Military Ball Queen for 1971. Among the honored guests were Representative Richard Ichord of Missouri and Deputy Assistant Secretary of Defense-Education, Dr. George Benson.

Chi Epsilon

Chi Epsilon represents a goal for all young Civil Engineers—it is the honorary composed of outstanding Civil Engineering upperclassmen. Members are picked from the upper 1/3 of the senior class and a more select group of juniors. Chi Epsilon is not an honorary existing solely for its own propagation, however. It provides help for University Day and Engineers' Day, a scholarship to the Outstanding Senior graduating each semester, and a prize at the Science Fair. It also practices one of its own main purposes, sociability, at the annual ASCE-Chi Epsilon steak bar-b-que.

Tau Beta Pi

Tau Beta Pi is a national engineering honor society founded to recognize students in engineering who exhibit outstanding scholarship and exemplary character. Among other activities, Tau Beta Pi sponsors the "Freshman Friends" program and offers a scholarship to an outstanding freshman. Also, Tau Beta Pi donates books and magazines to the UMR library and strives to stimulate student-faculty communications.

The honor of membership is significant because of high eligibility standards and the world-wide reputation of the society. Membership in Tau Beta Pi is an indication of a student's scholastic achievement and involvement, and activity in the chapter contributes to the student's development as a technically-oriented, well-rounded individual.

Kappa Mu Epsilon

The Missouri Zeta chapter of Kappa Mu Epsilon, the national fraternity for superior mathematics oriented students, has striven to further interest and to disseminate knowledge in mathematics on the UMR campus. To achieve this, tutoring sessions have been instituted, and tables of integrals have been distributed among the differential equations classes. Also, two delegates attended this year's national convention of KME. A spring outing was held to acquaint the students with the mathematics faculty. At various meetings throughout the past year, competent mathematicians have delivered lectures designed to familiarize and stimulate interest for the members in various phases of mathematics which are not ordinarily covered in the classroom. Also an award was given to the most outstanding mathematical project at the UMR science fair.

Pi Tau Sigma

The Missouri Tau Lambda Chapter of Pi Tau Sigma, the National Mechanical Engineering Fraternity, is now one of the largest of the chapters in the entire country. In addition to recognizing outstanding Mechanical Engineering students, Pi Tau Sigma has served the department and the campus in various capacities, such as providing slide rule instruction for freshmen and providing tour guides on University Day. Pi Tau Sigma also presented an award to an outstanding engineering project at the annual science fair. In an effort to promote additional contact between students and faculty, the semiannual outings and the student-faculty basketball game were sponsored by Pi Tau Sigma.

Nuclear Engr. & Science Honor Society

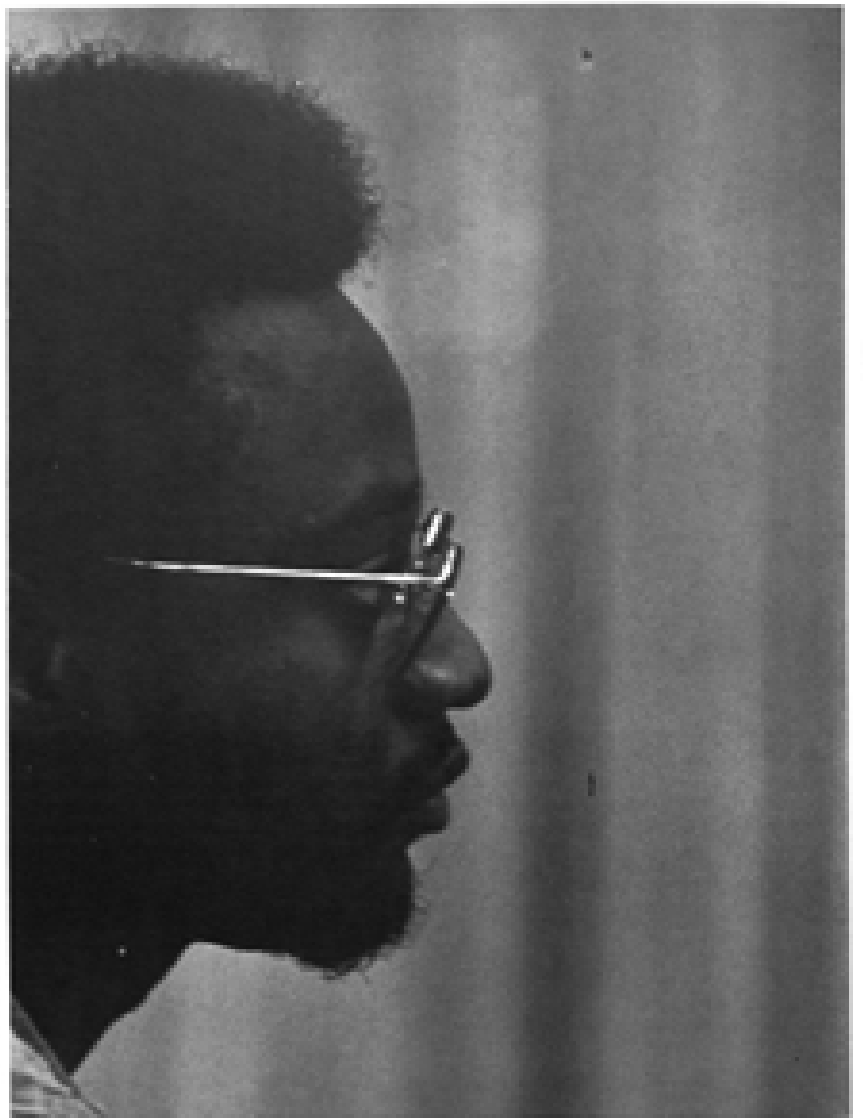

On December 11, 1969, the Nuclear Engineering and Science Honor Society was established at UMR. The object of this Society is the recognition and promotion of high scholastic achievement and/or professional attainment in the fields of Nuclear Engineering and Science. There are three classes of membership. They are: Undergraduate, Graduate, and Professional.

This year, as in years past, Beta Delta chapter of Alpha Chi Sigma participated in several projects. These included freshman chemistry help sessions, stocking safety equipment in the chem labs, chemistry merit badge instruction for the Boy Scouts, and the presentation of the Professor Snarf award. At this year's national convention, Beta Delta was named the best chapter among those that did not operate a house.

Muslim Students Association

Organization of Arab Students

The Organization of the Arab Students promoted friendship and understanding among students from the Arab world and other countries. It also promoted mutual understanding and stronger ties between Arab students at UMR and American people. In fulfilling this purpose the organization sponsored speakers to many local meetings and held its annual banquet last November. The organization also organized the Palestinian week during last October to give a real picture of the Palestinian people and their struggle against Zionism.

Association of Black Students

The Association for Black Students for almost two years has been proclaiming to the UMR campus the readiness of Black people to carve out a pathway for themselves in the course of life. Students of other races have become alarmed at this attitude of the Black man and his desire to do things for himself and by himself. Propaganda has been waged here, there, and everywhere for the purpose of misinterpreting the intention of this organization. The members themselves are organized not to hate other men, but to lift themselves, and to demand respect of all humanity. Those who make up the "Association of Black Students" on the UMR campus have decided that they shall go forward, upward, and onward toward the great goal of human liberty. They have determined that all barriers placed in the way of their progress must be removed, for they desire to see the light of a brighter day.

India Association

The India Association began the fall semester this year with a picnic at Meramec Springs, which was well attended by both members and guests. As in the past, the Association kept the artistic taste of the membership alive by sponsoring four excellent Indian movies each depicting an aspect of Indian life. The highlight of the fall semester was the Dewali Function. This, both a solemn and a festive occasion, was fully attended by its members and honored by Dr. C. A. Johnson, Mr. Lou Moss, and Mrs. Todd of UMR. Dr. Mathur, another honored guest of the evening, made the annual presentation of the Mathur Award. Following the dinner and entertainment were several games with prizes for the winners. The activities of the India Association for the spring semester were basically the same. Four Indian movies, a picnic at Meramec Springs, and a delightful Holi celebration were the highlights during this semester. The Holi function was honored by the presence of Mr. Sam Burton and family.

Korean Stud. Assoc.

The Korean Student Association was officially recognized about one year ago, and have made much progress in promoting better mutual relationship and understanding among all students at the University of Missouri at Rolla. The activities of the KSA were a Korean film festival, a lecture series, and picnics at Meramec Springs near St. James, Mo.

Feder. of Latin American Studs.

Promoting fellowship as well as providing aid and a friendly face to one portion of UMR's foreign students during 1970-71 was the Federation of Latin American Students. In providing a complete program of cultural education as well as many of the elements of life back home, one of the activities of the Federation this year was the formation of a Latin American band which entertained the UMR students several times during the year.

Iranian Stud. Assoc.

The purpose of ISA-UMR is to inform students of UMR and the community of Rolla about the political affairs of Iran and to support the struggle of all the people around the world for their freedom and self-determination.

During the past year, several movies concerning the Iranians', Palestinians', and Algerians' struggles for freedom have been shown and a banquet was co-sponsored with the organization of Arab students to raise money for Palestinian refugees. The Association was successful in defending four of its members who were about to be expelled from school for taking part in a peaceful demonstration at UMR to protest the National Guard's brutal action which resulted in the death of four American students at Kent State University.

Chinese Student Assoc.

The Chinese Student Association of UMR was organized not only to assist in overcoming any difficulties our fellow Chinese students may encounter, but also, through the efforts of each and every member, to hearten the understanding of our American friends toward the Republic of China and to enhance the cultural exchange between the two people. Besides having social events, the CSA of UMR also holds athletic competitions. During the Easter Vacation, a huge banquet was held jointly with the CSA's of several midwestern universities. In the same week, a CSA convention, with national participation, was also held in Washington, D.C. The activities on this campus were centered around the China Week, which included Chinese art exhibits, China Night and China Review. Also, a large banquet was held to celebrate the National Day (October 10). Through these activities, the Chinese Student Association hopes to accomplish the goal of "International Brotherhood".

Newman Club

The Newman Club at UMR seeks to bring Catholic students together in a spiritual community so that their development of faith parallels their higher degree of intellectual insight and fulfillment. Newman actively participated in the United Ministries in Higher Education, the Ecumenical Program on Campus, inner-city renewal programs, and the Freshman Assistance Program. Daily afternoon Mass, and student-oriented Sunday Mass, marriage-preparation programs, continuing inquiry discussion groups, and counseling were only a few of the benefits offered.

Baptist Student Union

During the past year, the Baptist Student Union has served as a principal source of Christian fellowship for students, in addition to supplementing the ministries of the local Baptist Churches. Highlight activities have been International Banquets sponsored by the Baptist Student Union each semester. The BSU has participated in various state conventions and retreats. In addition, it has been active in intramural sports and has entertained the center with various parties and social events.

During the 1970-1971 school year, Wesley Foundation took part in many new activities as well as the usual Wednesday night meetings, Sunday Studies, and general fellowship. Wesley journeyed to St. Louis to do repair work on several inner-city mission churches, aided by the Cottey College YWCA. Other weekends were spent doing repair at the church camps of Orchard Crest and Galilee.

On Campus, Wesley was co-sponsor of the Monfort Mission concert, the New Christian Singers, the Mitchells, and the Cellar Door Coffeehouse. Wesley also co-sponsored campus lectures by THE GROUP, INC., which is a team of volunteers who are working in the St. Louis Ghettos.

The year was topped off over St. Pat's weekend, when Wesley made its first entry in the St. Pat's parade in recent years. Charlie Brown and his friends mounted atop kiddie wagons, tricycles, and a doghouse, charmed their way into the hearts of young parade goers, and placed first in the non-float competition in the parade.

Gamma Delta

Gamma Delta, the International Association of Lutheran students, had another active program this year. Programs and activities were planned to promote better Christian knowledge, service, and fellowship. Service projects ranged from visiting patients at Phelps County Hospital and conducting a work-day, to Christmas carolling and serving coffee and doughnuts. Membership is open to all students at UMR and activities include a monthly supper, guest speakers, social events with other chapters, and an annual canoe float.

Christ. Sci. Org.

The Christian Science Organization serves to strengthen Christian Science students enrolled at UMR and to unite them in closer bonds of Christian fellowship. The Organization on this campus was founded in 1961 and is one of the hundreds of such groups located at colleges and universities throughout the world. The Organization's weekly meetings, which include Scriptural selections chosen by student readers, seek to emphasize the everyday relevancy of spiritual values. Each year the members seek to share their "good news" with the college community by sponsoring a qualified Christian Science lecturer to speak on the campus.

Assoc. of Engr. Geologists

From its beginning as the first student chapter of the Association of Engineering Geologists, AEG has become an important service to the geological engineering student. The Association has served not only to bring the student closer to his fellow students and the faculty, but it has afforded the opportunity to learn more about the profession. Along with its usual meetings and seminars there are many impromptu social gatherings. Each year the Association has sponsored a banquet with the parent St. Louis chapter. This has given the student a unique opportunity to become acquainted with the practicing professional engineer.

The Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers, world's largest professional engineering society, serves its member EE's of UMR through a variety of activities. Conferences and papers contests are open to members on regional and national levels. The Rolla Student Branch this year toured the electronics facilities of Western Electric and McDonnell Douglas Corporations. Each of the regular business meetings also included a presentation by such companies as Collins Radio, United Nuclear, Southwestern Bell Telephone, and Union Electric. Also a part of IEEE's activities were social outings in the fall and spring.

American Foundryman's Soc.

In the past school year, the American Society of Civil Engineers was involved in activities which passed beyond the scope of the regular meetings. At the annual UMR University Day, ASCE members set up exhibits to convey the excitement of Civil Engineering to visiting high school students, and as an added attraction, a strongest-beam contest was held. ASCE members performed a traffic survey for the city of Rolla, and were engaged by the Missouri Jaycees to provide engineering services for a handicapped children's camp at the Lake of the Ozarks. These activities were greeted with enthusiasm by the students, as was witnessed by a 30% increase in membership, bringing the total number of ASCE members to over 400.

A.S.M.E.

This past year ASME has had speakers from such companies as Detroit Edison, Alcoa Aluminum, and NASA at their monthly meetings. The society has also taken tours of Anheuser Busch and St. Louis Shipbuilding. This past semester, the UMR chapter was honored to act as host for the Regional Student Papers Contest. At the contest, nine schools were represented and a total of 15 papers presented. The goals behind the contest are to bring engineering students together and to give the students a chance to present a technical paper on some project he has done.

C.L. Dake Geo. Soc.

Promotion of interest in the geologic sciences was the central purpose governing the activities of the C. L. Dake Geological Society. In addition to slide shows and lectures at the meetings, field trips to several mines and quarries in Missouri improved members' understanding of geology. The society's third annual mineral auction and various service projects provided more practical experience. By sponsoring a fall departmental mixer, a Christmas party, and a spring picnic, the society furnished an opportunity for students and faculty to socialize in a nonacademic atmosphere.

Society of Women Engineers

The Society of Women Engineers is a national professional organization composed of women who are professional engineers and women who are engineering or science students. The purposes of the society are to present the needs and ideals of women in the engineering profession and to encourage women with the necessary technical aptitudes and interests to enter the engineering field. During the 1970-71 school year, the UMR branch of the society sponsored several events and activities including our annual bake sale and a picnic with the women from national in St. Louis.

W.T. Schrenk Chemical Society

The W. T. Schrenk Chemical Society is dedicated to the promotion of interaction between the faculty and students of the Chemistry department. One of its major purposes is to provide the student with a broader background in the chemical profession than is received in the classroom. The Society provided help to the University on University Day by giving tours of the Chemical Engineering Building. Also the Society provided help sessions for chemistry students during the fall semester. Other activities of the Society, besides regular meetings, included the selling of safety glasses and the fall and spring outings.

Association of Married Students

Murlyn Pace and Barb Moran work to finish the Mates entry to the St. Pat's Parade.

The Association of Married Students, nicknamed Mates, was formed this past September, 1970 by an original group of six married couples who felt there was a need for an organization of this sort at UMR. A constitution was written and approved by the Student Council, officers were elected, membership cards were printed, sweatshirts were designed, and Mates came into being. Since the original objective of this club was for social purposes, Mates has held several social events including a barbeque picnic, a Christmas party, a New Year's Eve party, and a St. Pat's party. Mates' men have actively participated in the UMR intramural program. Monthly meetings were held in the Student Union Ballroom with capacity attendance. We are sure that this organization will continue to grow and that its original purpose will benefit all married couples during their years at UMR.

The Dames' community activities this year included providing food baskets to a needy family and partial support of a local planned parenthood clinic.

The Club had several fund-raising projects which included a style show, student survival kits, a bake sale, a cook-book and stationery sale, and a silent auction.

Social activities throughout the year were the children's Christmas party, Easter party, family night, and December and May banquets. In addition, the club sponsored weekly interest groups in bridge, bowling, ceramics, coffee club, needlework, pinochle, prenatal, and swimming.

U.M.R. Park Board

With renewed interest, the members of the UMR Park Board have started to work for all UMR students. The Board is incorporated as a non-profit corporation under the laws of Missouri as Miner Enterprises, Inc. Its purpose is to provide facilities and services for the students of UMR. It has been called the Park Board because its primary aim is to institute and develop a park which is fully owned and operated by students for the benefit of all.

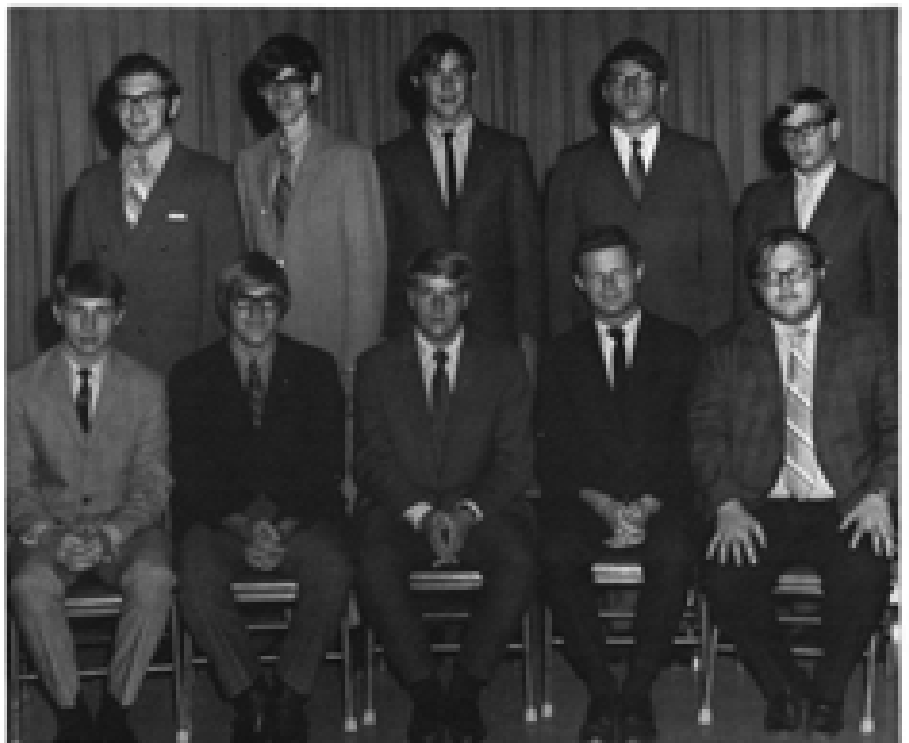

Present activities include finding ways to finance the project as well as finding land available which is within a reasonable distance to the school. The Board has about $5,000. in pledges and is hoping for much more. Land is available; it is just a matter of coming up with available funds. The Board is presently trying to expand its representation to a 32 man board from the present 12 man system. We hope that this will stimulate a greater interest in the organization and help us attain our goals much more quickly.

C.Y.R.

The University of Missouri at Rolla has many organizations upon its campus, however, only one of these is politically oriented. This organization is the College Young Republicans. The CYR's are composed of young people interested in politics and the promotion of Republican candidates and ideals. In the past year the local chapter of the Missouri Federation of College Young Republicans campaigned for local Republican candidates and participated in the Missouri Intercollegiate Student Legislature. Several of the local candidates spoke at various CYR meetings and described their experiences as political figures. More ambitious plans are being made for the 1971-72 school year. Being involved in an organization such as the CYR's helps round the young people and prepare them for their future as concerned citizens in America.

Intramural Mgrs.

The Intramural Managers Association was first organized this year to give the students a larger role in the planning and direction of the intramural program. Coach Burr VanNosstrand is in charge of intramural sports at UMR and is mainly responsible for the formation of the Association. Although this year was one of organizing the Association, next year should see it taking a full part in improving the intramural program.

Soccer Club

The UMR Soccer Club started very strong in their fall Khoury League play, but, unable to get the entire team to some weeknight games, finished third in their league. Bob Doyle, who served as president during the fall, and Steve Bergtholdt, who was president in the spring are continuing their efforts to establish an inter-collegiate, non-Varsity league among the Missouri clubs. The Miner Kickers are respected on the inter-collegiate circuit—Westminster was shut out twice; and Mizzou always expects a hard game when they meet us, although they walked by us on St. Pat's party weekend with a 2-0 victory. The squad improves every year as high quality freshmen decide on UMR for an education and find a soccer team, too.

Rock Climbers

Braving the sheer cliffs and the loose rock around the Rolla area, the UMR Rock Climbing Club reached new highs in its climbing adventures this year. Weekend trips to nearby cliffs gave members a chance to learn new climbing techniques, and to practice such important skills as rappelling and technical leading. The fall semester once again was highlighted by a four-day trip over the Thanksgiving vacation to the Wichita Mountains in Oklahoma. There, new members got to learn what climbing on 300-foot cliffs was all about. Through its perfect record of safe climbing, the Rock Climbing Club once again achieved its goal of promoting rock climbing on the Rolla campus.

This year the Photo Club has expanded tremendously to suit the needs of its members. The inexperienced, but interested photographer can learn how to handle all of the equipment in a short time by simply coming to the monthly meetings. At each of the meetings, the purchasing of new equipment is discussed along with the showing of slides, which are provided by Kodak. These slide shows help by broadening a photographer's technique. After making new purchases, the old equipment is then auctioned off for the benefit of those who are building their own darkroom. To climax the year, the club held a photo contest which sensitized many people to an appreciation of the photographic art.

The Raiders greatly expanded their knowledge of the military again this year with the inclusion of air mobile experience. Along with this new training with Huey helicopters, the Raiders continued to provide the select UMR-ROTC cadet with techniques of rappelling, traversing, escape and evasion, long-range patrolling, hand-to-hand combat, demolitions, and other skills of guerrilla and conventional tactics. The year of physical training and week-end-long field problems resulted in the year's trainees winning the wanted symbol of the Raiders, the black beret and Raider tab.

Company K-7, UMR's unit in the National Society of Pershing Rifles, completed a balanced program this year. Throughout the year the company provided cannon crews, color guards, and drill exhibitions. Work days in the fall and spring helped to pay for drill meets while helping the community. Awards were won for regimental competition and for having the highest GPA in the regiment. The exhibition drill team also participated in a national drill meet at the University of Illinois and a state drill meet at Columbia in which they placed third.

Editor's Note

There are many people who are responsible for the completion of this yearbook. I would like to thank our advisor, Lance Williams, for his time, his moral support and especially for the editorial freedom he provided.

Most of the photographs in this book have been taken by students. John Hoelscher deserves special credit for his work as photo editor. All of the photographers put in a great deal of time and certainly deserve recognition for their effort.

This year we decided that informal Living Unit pictures would best express the character of these organizations. Alan Wolff and Gus Heck did a fine job editing the Living Unit section. The credit for the informal organization pictures belongs to Bob Brennecke.

I would like to thank Charlie Laderoute for his creative endeavors in arranging the Academic section. Steve Robertson, Dave Barczewski and Chuck Flaminio did an admirable job on their sections. Finally, I would like to thank the entire Rollamo Staff for their help and enthusiasm throughout the year.

Joy tempered with pain is the soul of this book. This is what we gave. I suppose what we want from you is appreciation. . .nothing more.
